Time takes wing

Seems like years ago . . .

Today becomes yesterday.

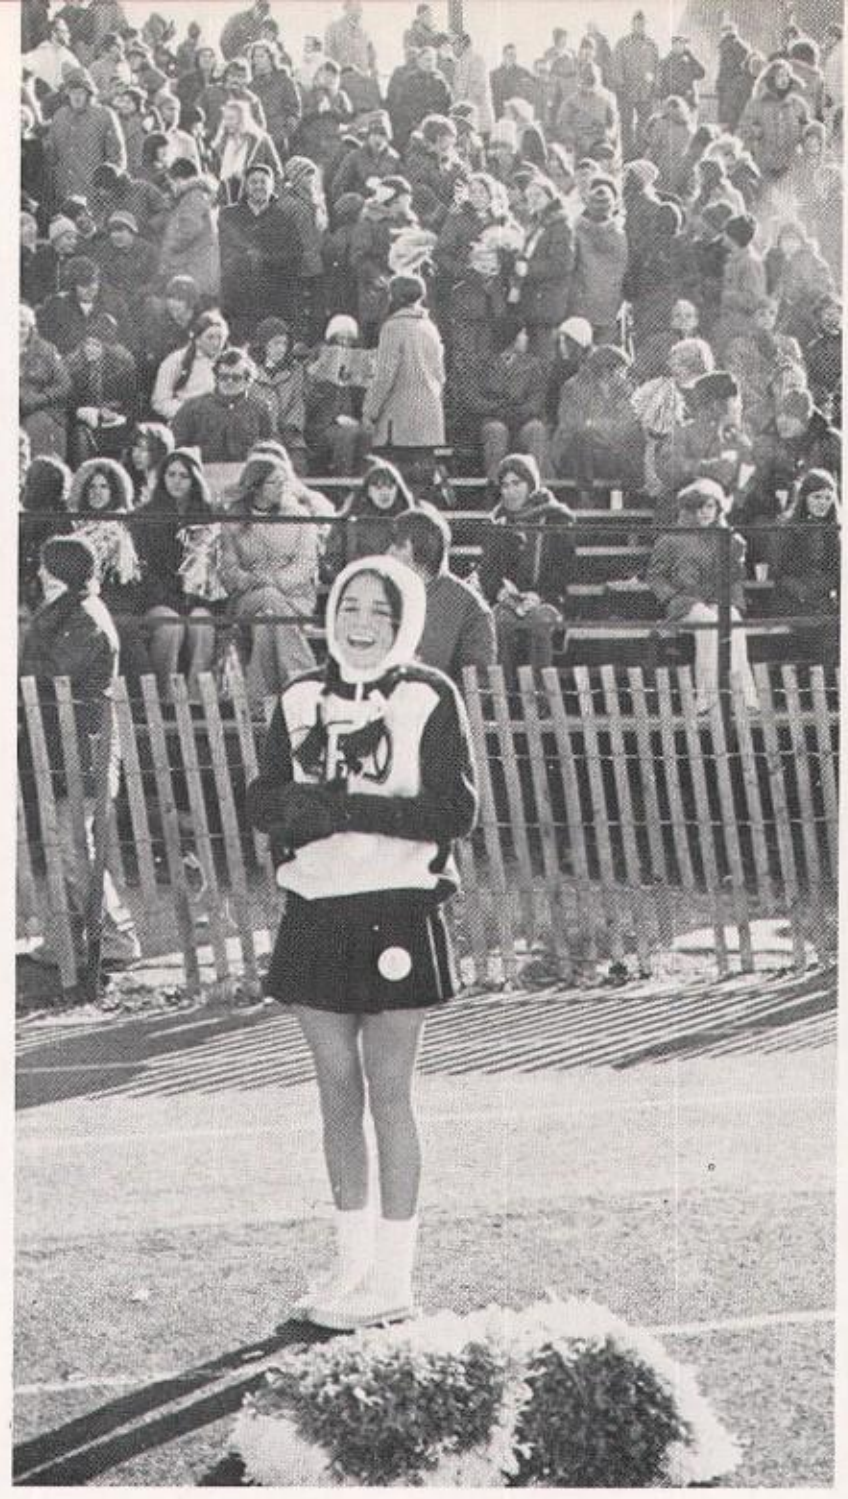
Only to stop and think about the days passed.

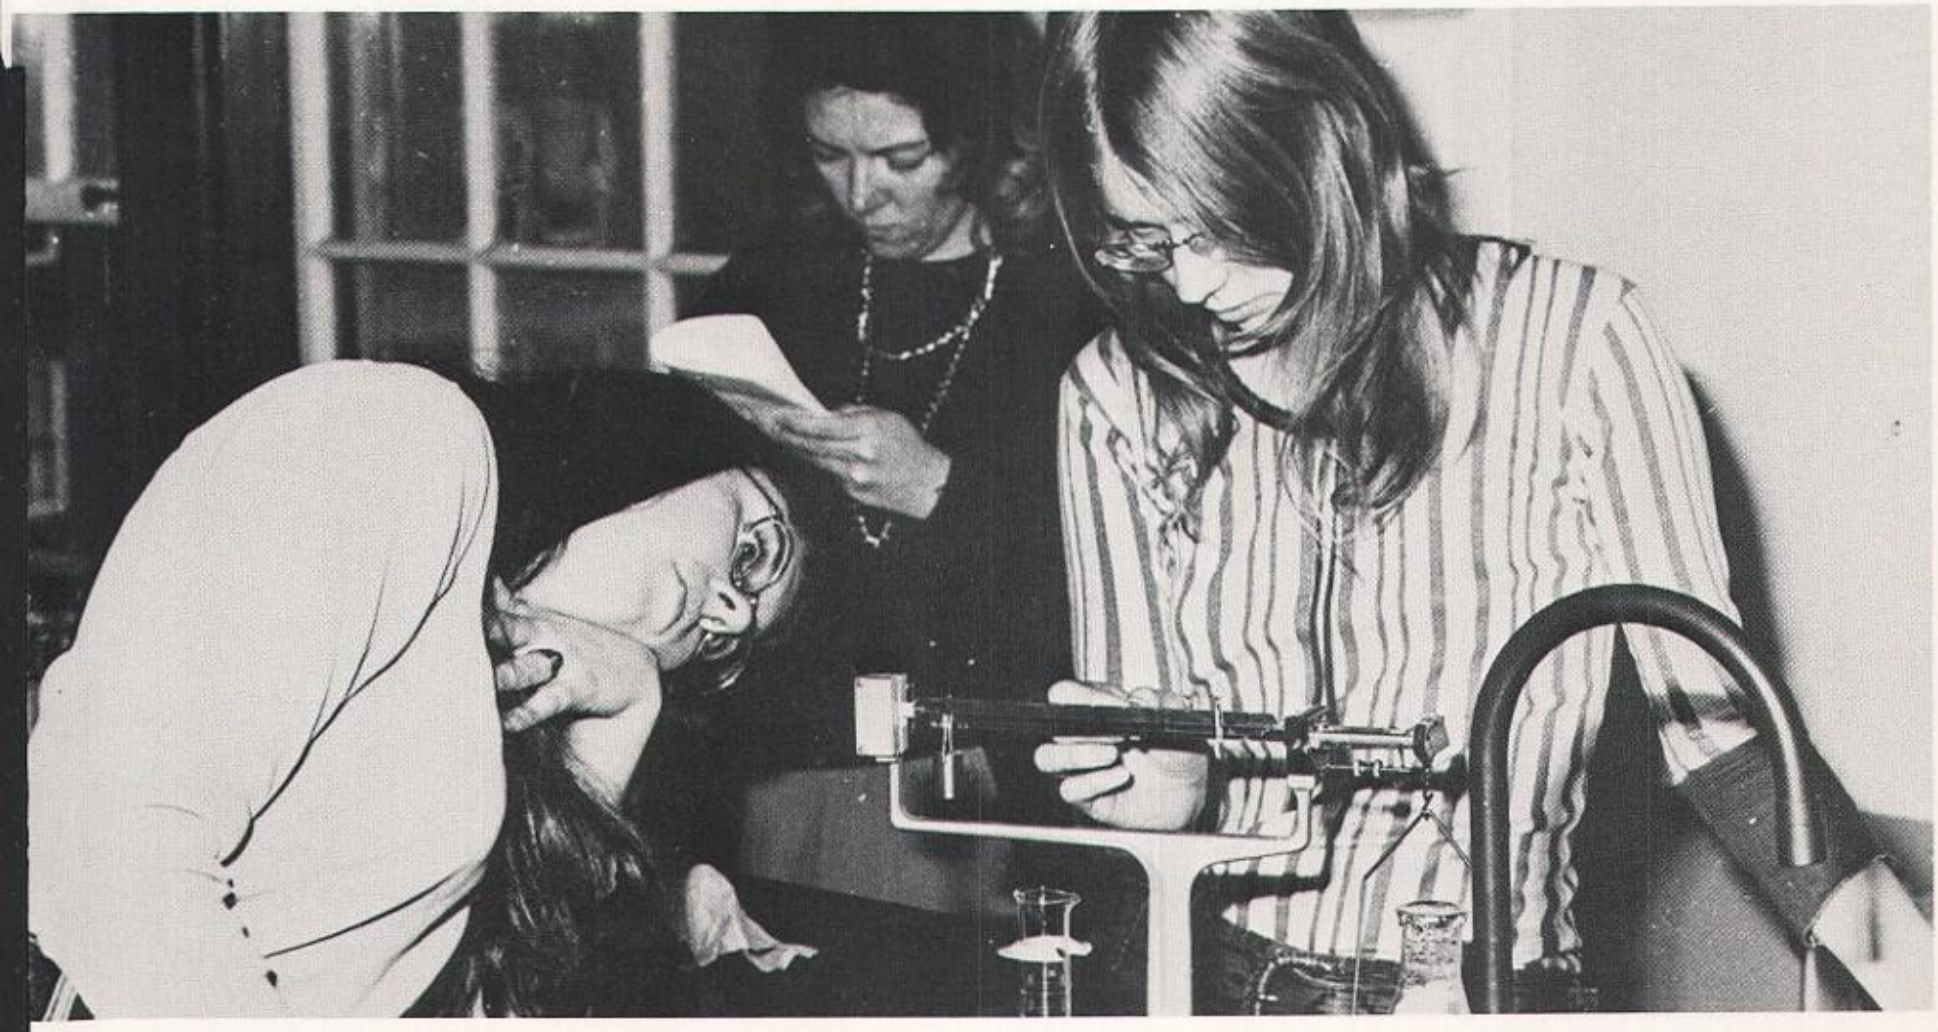
Tomorrow drifts into today.

Leaving the good today for the better tomorrow.

Flying off to seek tomorrow.

The 1973 Totem staff realizes that it is not just one person who is important to our school, or just one activity that makes our school outstanding. The whole student body makes our school special. Therefore, the yearbook staff dedicates the 1973 Totem to the students, because the yearbook is of the students, by the students, and for the students.





1972 — 1973 Headlines

Mr. Henry "Whopper" Deetjen, esteemed member of our History department.

Mr. Deetjen, graduate of Cheverus High School, attended Bridgton Academy, received his Bachelor of Science degree from Colby College '31 and his Master's degree in Education from the University of New Hampshire.

Mr. Deetjen taught from 1932-1936 at Cheverus High School, where he coached football, basketball, and baseball. He then taught at Sanford High School also coaching football and basketball. After spending four years with the Military, Mr. Deetjen returned to Sanford and from there came to the hallowed halls of P.H.S. in 1947, joining the History Dept. and Mrs. Carola Cameron Guthrie, stylish, attractive, and much respected member of the English dept.

Mrs. Guthrie received her Bachelor of Science degree from Gorham State Teachers' College in 1947, her Master of Arts from New York University in 1953, and her Master's Intermediate from N.Y.U. in 1954. She is a member of the Portland, Maine, and National Education Associations; the Maine and New England Council of Teachers of English and the College Club of Portland. Her outside interests include her lakeside home and love of travel.

Mr. James E. Flanagan, former math teacher, and football coach, now Principal of Adult Education.

Mr. Flanagan graduated from P.H.S. in 1923 and attended Holy Cross College where he graduated in 1933. He attended graduate school at the Univ. of Maine, Boston University, Univ. of Connecticut, and Gorham State College.

Mr. Flanagan came to P.H.S. in 1936 as a football coach and teacher, left to spend 3 years in the U.S. Navy, and returned to us in 1945. In 1964, he was elected Principal of Adult Education, and he coaching basketball. Mr. Deetjen has the distinction of having coached Portland's Little Boy Blues when they were Maine State Champs in 1950.

Mr. and Mrs. Deetjen plan to travel extensively upon his retirement.

There is so much we could say about Mr. Deetjen and so little space. We must be content to wish him Bon Voyage, Godspeed, and many happy years ahead. He will be missed at Portland High, but long remembered.

Coach Deetjen demonstrates passing fundamentals.

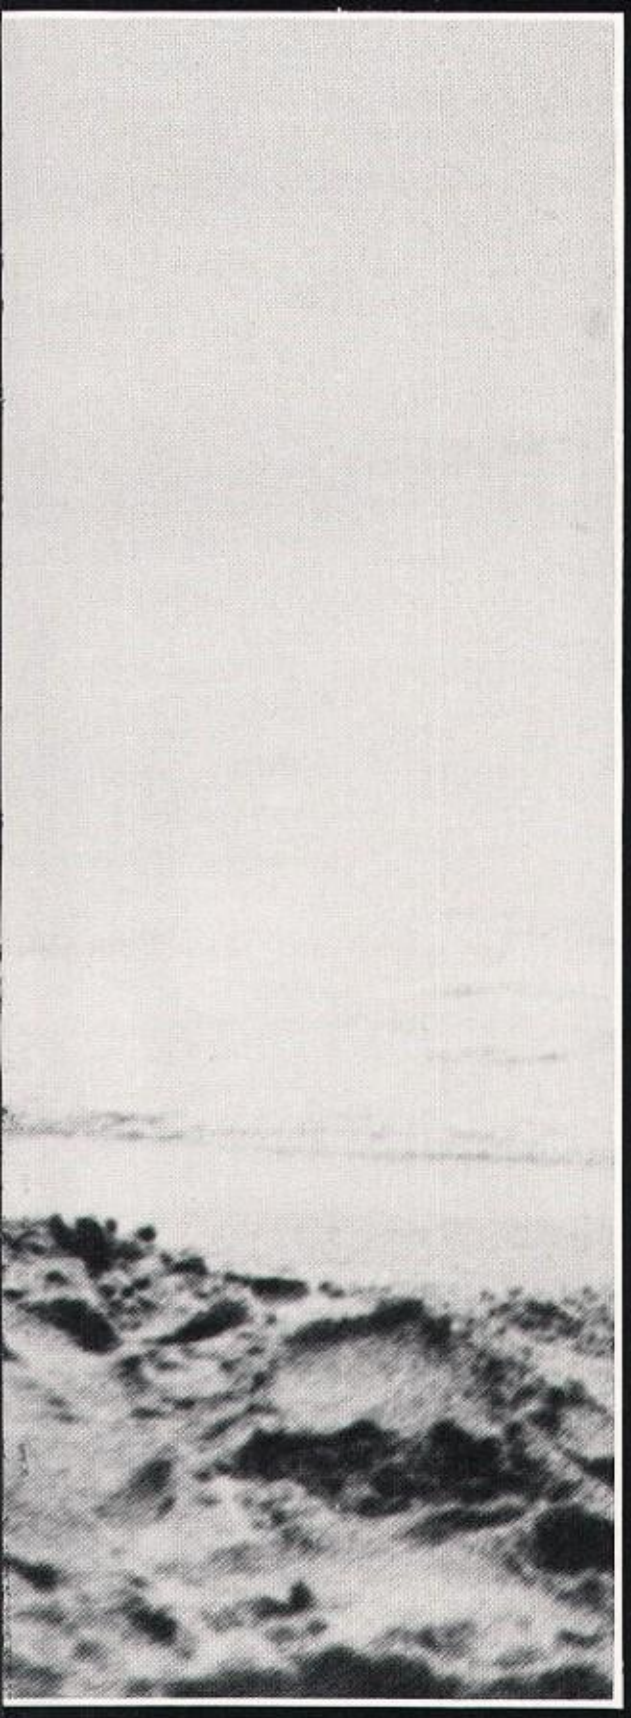
Mrs. Guthrie's pleasant manner, and able teaching will be a loss to P.H.S. and we wish for her the best the future has to offer.

Mrs. Guthrie with one of her pupils.

instituted a high school program for adults in 1965. He coordinated a program of Inservice Training for New England Adult Teachers at the University of Connecticut.

Mr. Flanagan has had a long and varied career in sports and athletics. He has made a great impression on innumerable graduates of P.H.S. We express our appreciation in our own small way to a man who deserves much. Good luck, Mr. Flanagan, and many more happy years.

Mr. Flanagan receives an award.



Time it was,

And what a time it was . . .

A time of innocence,

A time of confidences.

Senior Class Leaders

The class of 1973 had a successful and memorable year. Seniors enthusiastically participated in all school activities and lent their support to the endeavors of the underclassmen.

A committee of students was able to persuade the School Committee that the graduation date be changed to the morning of June 13. To celebrate this event, the seniors will spend the evening enjoying their final banquet and prom.

Although these personable seniors will no longer populate the halls and classes, they will be remembered for their contribution to the history of P.H.S.

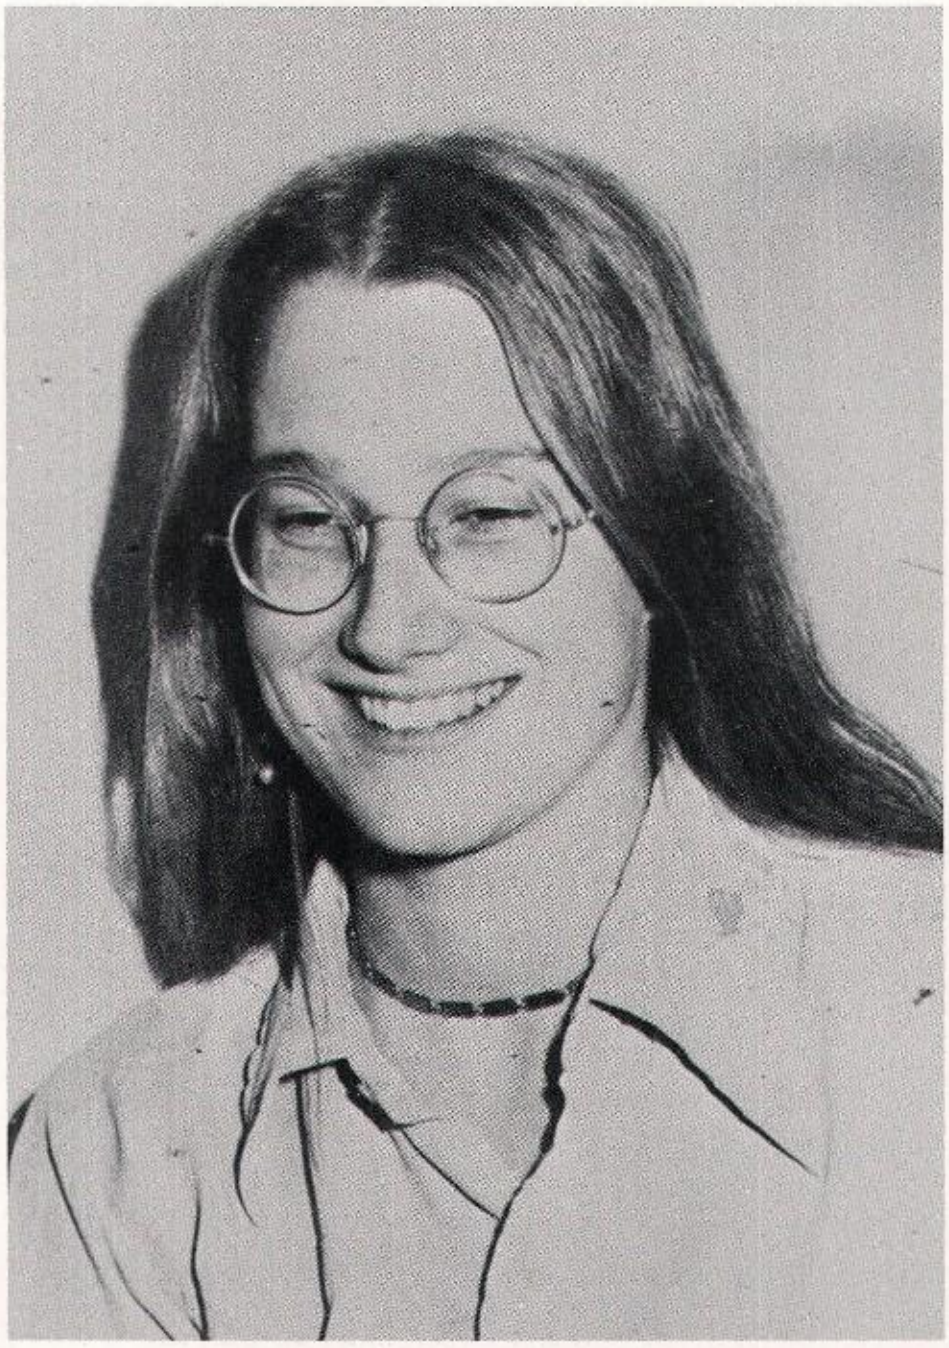
Graduation Honors



Leslie Reuter

Valedictorian, Class of 1973

"I want, by understanding myself, to understand others. I want to be all that I am capable of becoming . . . "

Jill Paradise

Salutatorian, Class of 1973

"Each honest calling, each walk of life, has its own elite, its own aristocracy based on excellence of performance."

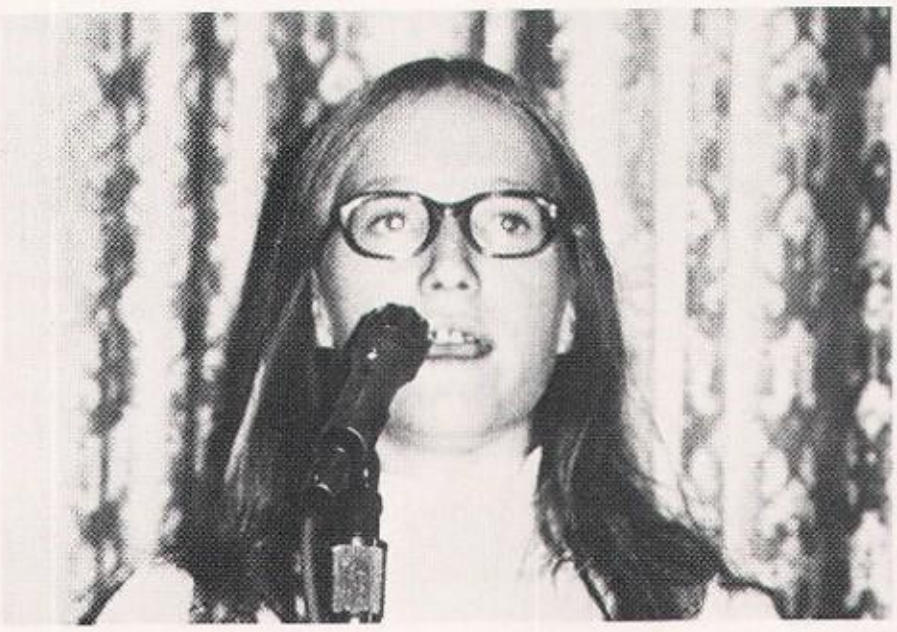
JUNIORS

JUNIOR OFFICERS:
Teresa Ward, Treasurer, Julie Napolitano, Vice-President, Jan Paradise, President, and Mary Fasulo, Secretary.

The Junior Class, advised by Miss Jacobs and Mr. Pope, held many successful projects to raise money for their Junior Prom. These included a candy sale, food sales, and car washes. Although it didn't raise money, the Devonsquare concert was a lot of fun. With these funds, the class chose "Stairway to Heaven" as their theme and put on a tremendous prom.

Juniors also had a great South Portland poster. Members of the class of 1974 participated in every school activity.



JUNIOR EXECUTIVE BOARD: Theresa Discatio, Jay Hibbard, Ralph Hendrix, Sis Boulos, Joe Rosario, Roseanne Nappi.

Juniors Margaret Myhaver, Mary Dubail, Kim Beatty, and Mary Fasulo practice typing exercises.

Lauren Hilliard and Janet Leiter man the refreshment booth at the Devonsquare Concert.

Devonsquare in concert.

This is the house that Scott Savasick built.

Julie Napolitano and Sandi Stacki watch the goodies.

"Why blow me over!" cried Gene Brown.

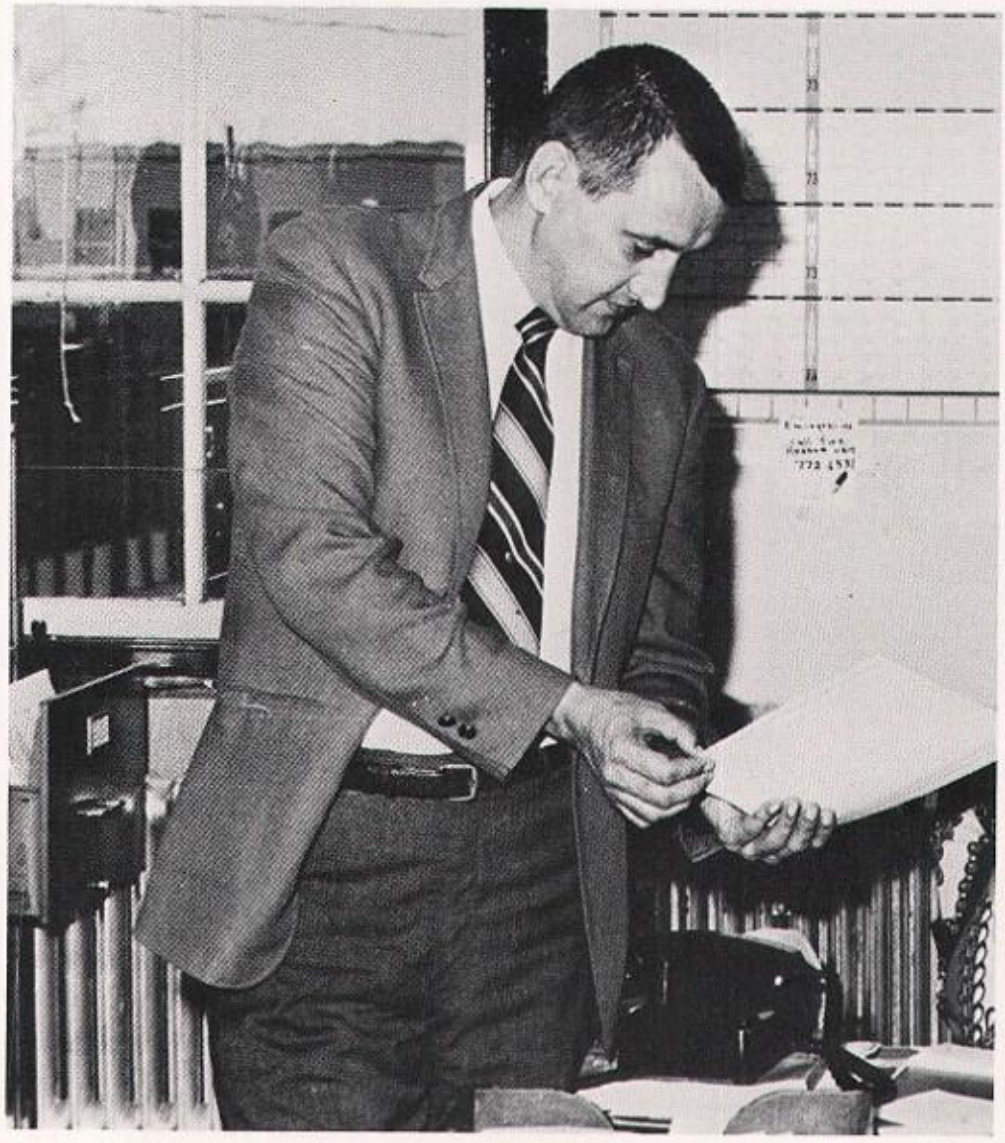
HIGH

Through these portals walk our dedicated mentors.

FACULTY

Mr. Hansen



A high school like Portland needs a capable man to lead it. Mr. Hansen had a tough act to follow this year but he has served admirably well during his first year as principal of Portland High School. He has encouraged and supported change this year. He allowed the students to have a smoking area and he has tried many different ideas to untangle the administrative knots of absenteeism and tardiness.

A glimpse of his stern face perhaps sends chills down the spines of underclassmen, but the departing seniors who have come to know Mr. Hansen have grown to like and respect him.

Mr. Whitmore

The task of a disciplinarian is never an easy one. He must carry the burden of alleviating chaos in the halls of our beloved PHS. Nevertheless, Mr. Richard L. Whitmore has fulfilled this responsibility most efficiently.

We sincerely thank Mr. Whitmore for his part in helping to maintain the fine reputation which Portland High School has held throughout the years.

Mr. Terracin

Have a problem you'd like to discuss or just want to have a friendly chat? Mr. Terracin's door is always open to the student. One of our two busy assistant principals, Mr. Terracin's duties revolve around scheduling, mark reports, program evaluation, and student counseling.

Mr. Terracin is a graduate of the University of Mississippi. He was an instructor of Advance Curriculum and Teaching Methods before coming to PHS two years ago. Mr. Terracin has gained the friendship of many students through his quiet, sincere, and warm character.

PHS Band, Majorettes

Under the supervision of Mr. Douglas Neal, the new band director, the Portland High School Band enlivened the football games and rallies. Students actively participated in their spirited musical numbers, clapping enthusiastically and continually requesting the old time favorite "What's New?"

Also this year, for the first time, there were Pom-Pom girls at Portland High School who performed in the half-time shows. Karen Lyden was the head and they really helped the band and cheerleaders.

The majorettes, led by Therese Grondin, were another stimulant of school spirit.

Harriers Continue Tradition

The P.H.S. cross-country team continued the recent tradition of high finishes this year. Coach Ed Bogdanovich's harriers went 9-2 in league competition to snare third in their conference. They went on to out-distance Deering in the Southwesterns, finishing second, but were a disappointed fifth in the State meet.

Gary Thibldeau and Jim Langella were the aces for the Blue Berets this year. Curt Jones and Chris Dinan were usually close behind in the three-four positions. Rod Wardwell, Bob Rice, and Steve Hanson also filled major scoring roles. Bob Pulkinnen, Dave Knapp, and Mike Johbson completed an unusually deep team.

The junior varsity's season was also outstanding. Their only loss was due to a wrong turn by the top six, who were at the time leading the race. Some of the standout J.V.'s were: Tom Shaw, Curt Peterson, Mike Dellaquilla, Russ Howard, John Shaw and Paul Koenig.

Football

The Bulldogs opened the season on a successful note defeating Cony 13-6. The gridders then proceeded to drop three straight by one touchdown. Portland then lost to Deering 30-20. The defense came back strong the following week only to have the team drop another 8-0 ballgame.

The blue dogs came back strong in the next two games defeating Sanford 12-0 and crushing Westbrook 34-22. The Thanksgiving game proved to be a tremendous game with PHS coming through with its best defensive effort of the year. Year long standouts for the Blue were Rick O'Brion, the O'Lores; Pat and Joe, Don Geary, John Curran, Q.B., Matt Hutchins.

Field Hockey Team

For the first time in many years, Portland High School's girls' Field Hockey team came through with a winning season. Led by an outstanding coach, Mrs. Marsh, and two faithful co-captains, Mary Ellen Bennett and Meredith Matthews, the team showed itself to be worthy of a winning season. Each player was a great asset to the team. Goals were scored by several players, and the players showed their skills in strong drives, a great defense, and team spirit.

The team was a team in every sense of the word — working together, having a good time together, and most important, winning together.

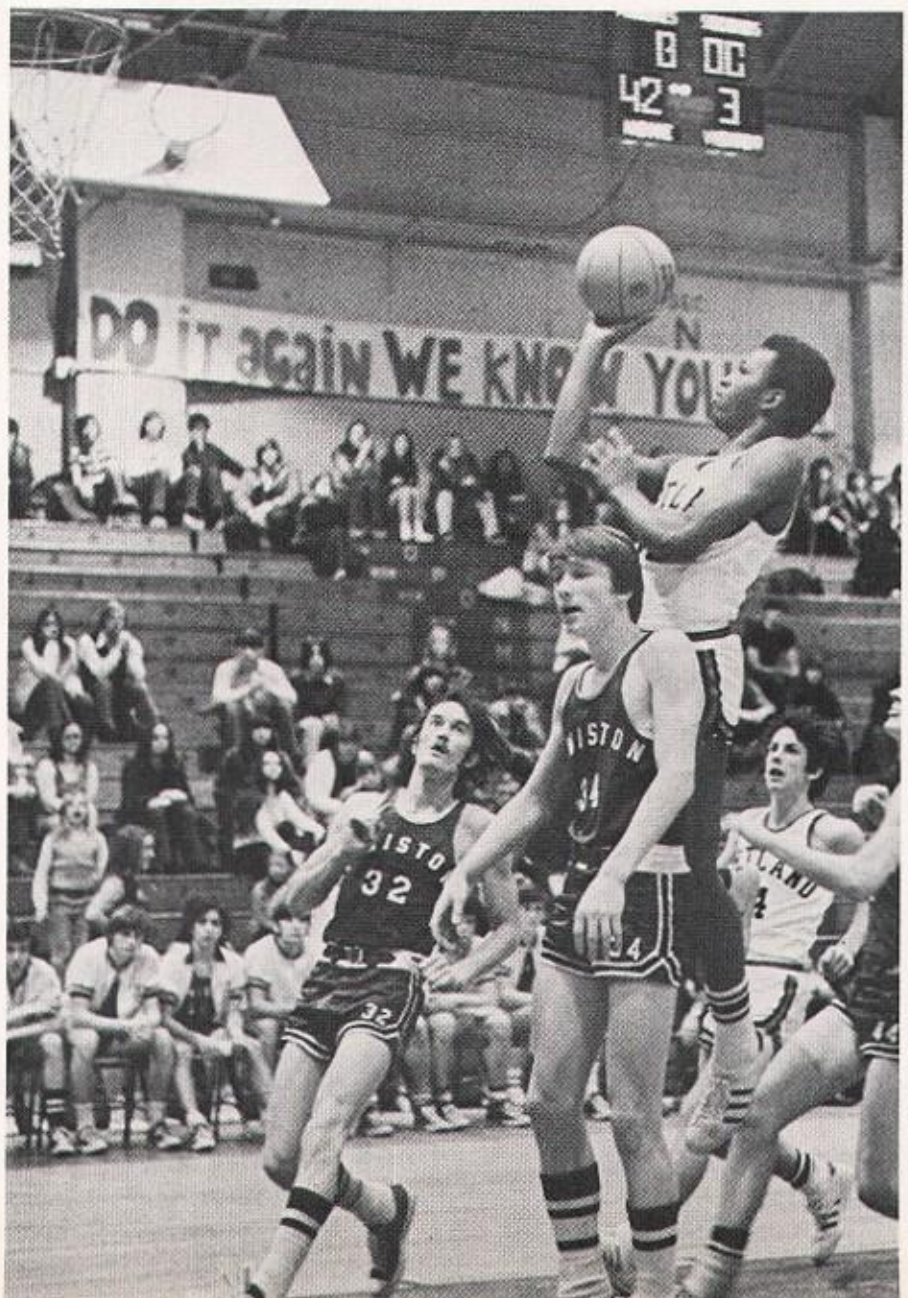
Basketball Team



The PHS basketball team was not favored at the beginning of the season, but it continually beat the top-rated teams. The Bulldogs made the finals during the Christmas tournament and captured seventh spot for the Western Maine tournament.

Coach John McGuire formed the players into a well-working team. Their defense-oriented game was very effective. This brand of basketball utilized the ball-handling skills of Captain Neil Taliento. Juniors Danny Wohl, Darryl McIlwain, and Jonathan Tomshick contributed a lot to the scoring and rebounding. Veteran Dave Reed helped in all departments. A strong bench included Mark O'Brion, Tim Flaherty, and Ed Reddmond. Coach O'Connell also led the J.V. to a successful season.

Girls' Basketball

This year, the Girl's Basketball team started the season with a new coach, Mrs. Linda Gordius. She has worked faithfully with the team since November and has become not only a strong coach, but a friend as well. The Varsity team is co-captained by Mary Collins and Karen Nadeau and the J.V. by Debbie Therrien and Karen Moulton. The team may not show its skill in victories, but it certainly has the spirit it should.

Officers for 1972-73.

Portland High Key Club (We Build)

Portland High Key Club, serving the school and community, has had a year full of projects and an active membership. Perhaps no other club, besides Keyettes, a girls service organization, has more respect or integrity. The officers for the 1972-73 year are, Vernon Reynolds, President; Tom Nunes, Vice President; Jay Hibbard, Secretary; Mat Pollard, Treasurer; Dale Doucette, Faculty Advisor. With a membership of twenty-two, we had many interesting community projects, some of which were; Muscular Dystrophy, Alsac Drives, football programs, Kiwanis Auctions, and ushering at Community Concerts.

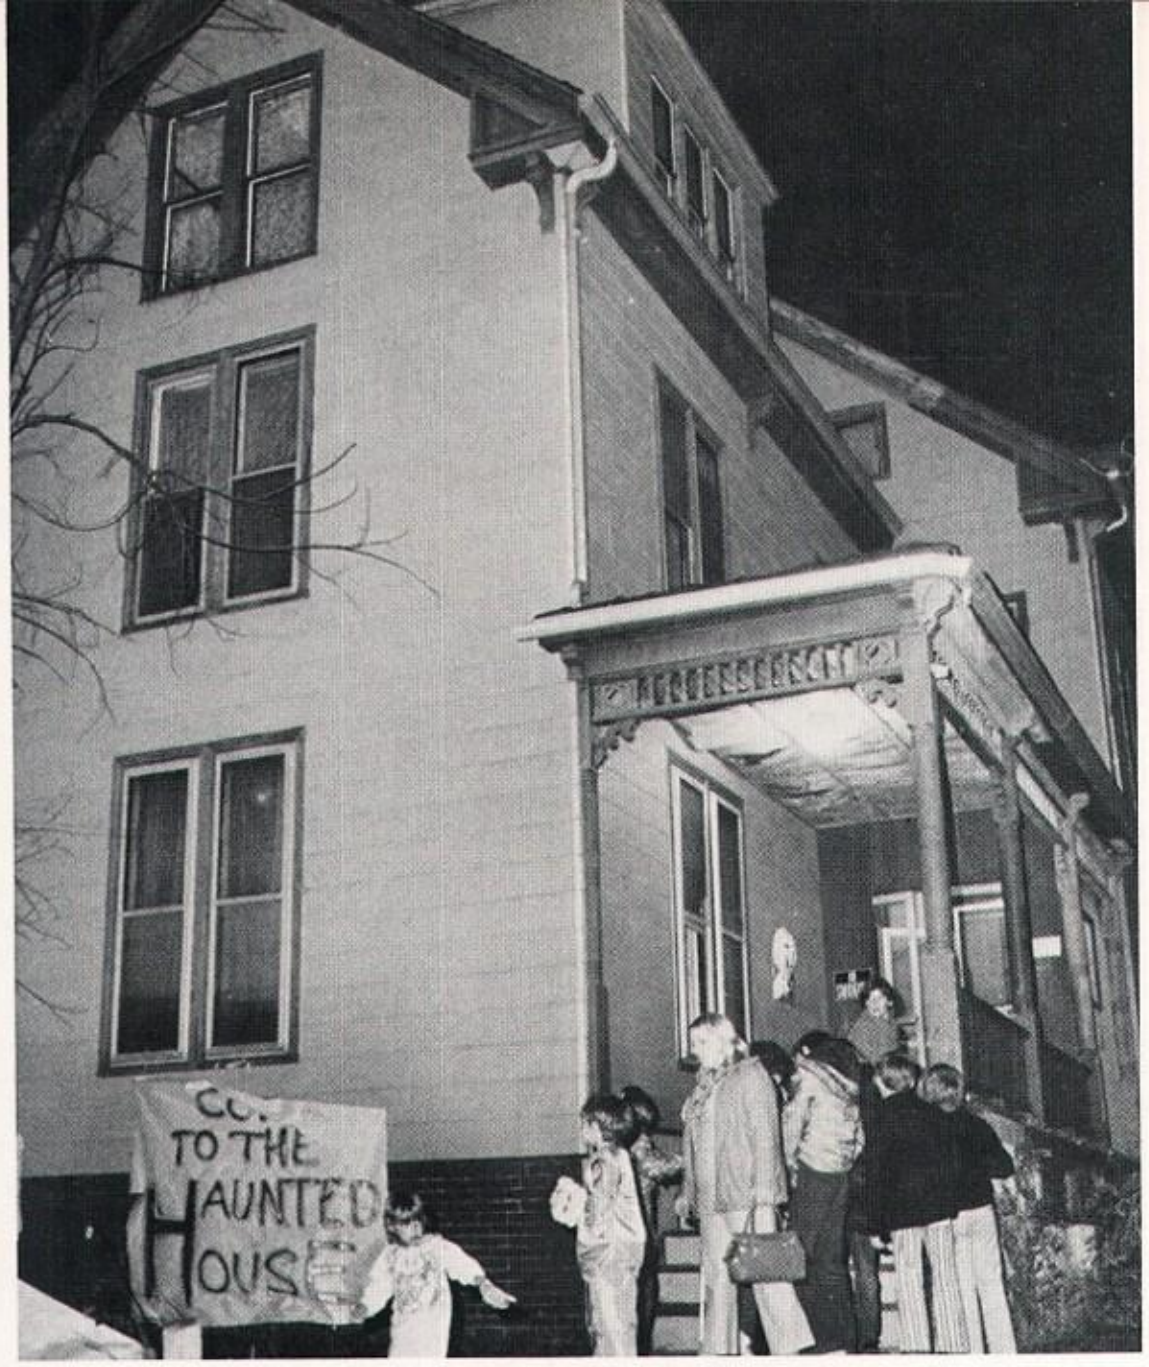
The Great Pumpkin at the Halloween House.

Keyettes

PHS Keyettes experienced a very prosperous year. September found the Keyettes enthusiastically planning a Haunted House. Under the leadership of Jill Paradise, the club's dedicated President, the activity was a tremendous success. In fact, the project raised $475. The next month Keyettes decided to give food baskets.

December meant answering numerous letters to Santa Claus from area children.

These were only a few projects in which the Keyettes have been actively involved in serving the school and community.



Frightened children leave the Halloween House in shock.

Student Advisory Board

This year, the Totem was put out by a dedicated and imaginative staff. Many people worked long hours to put out the yearbook.

At right are Co-Editors Janet Koenig and Jill Paradise.

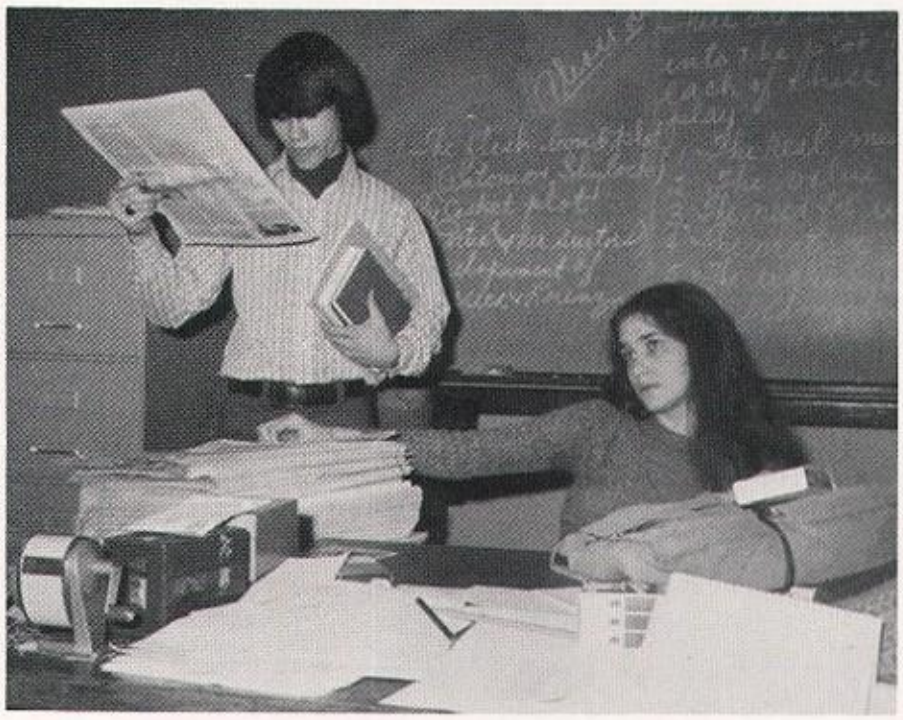
The Apocalypse!!!

One of the biggest events taking place in the literary department this year was the emergence of a new school paper, The APOCALYPSE. Along with the supervision of Mrs. Ridge and the backing of the staff, the co-editors succeeded in producing a monthly newspaper.

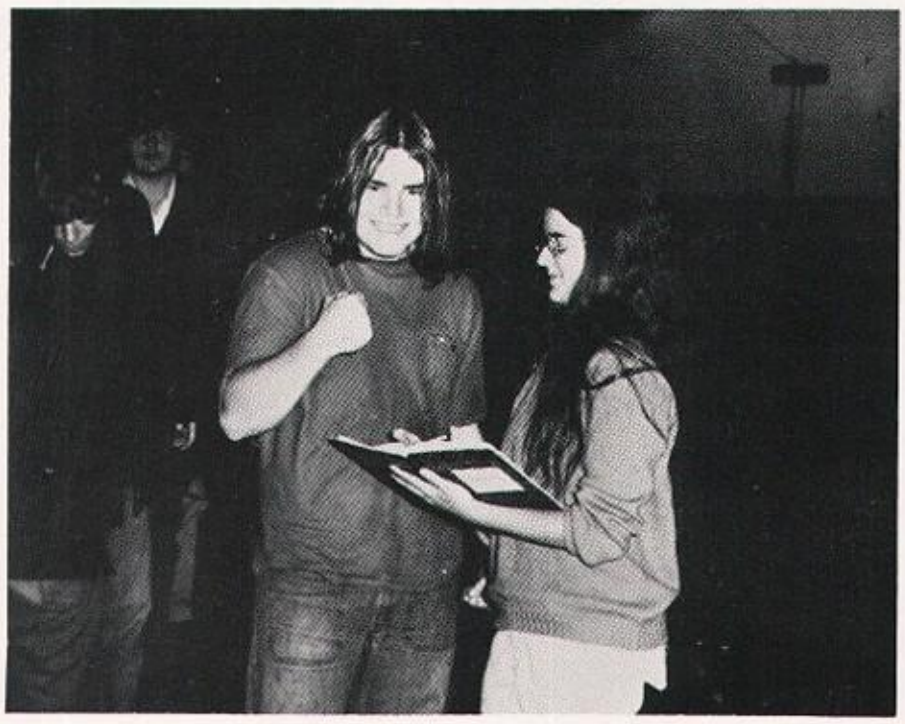
The reaction of the student body was overwhelming and throughout the year student participation in producing this paper improved.

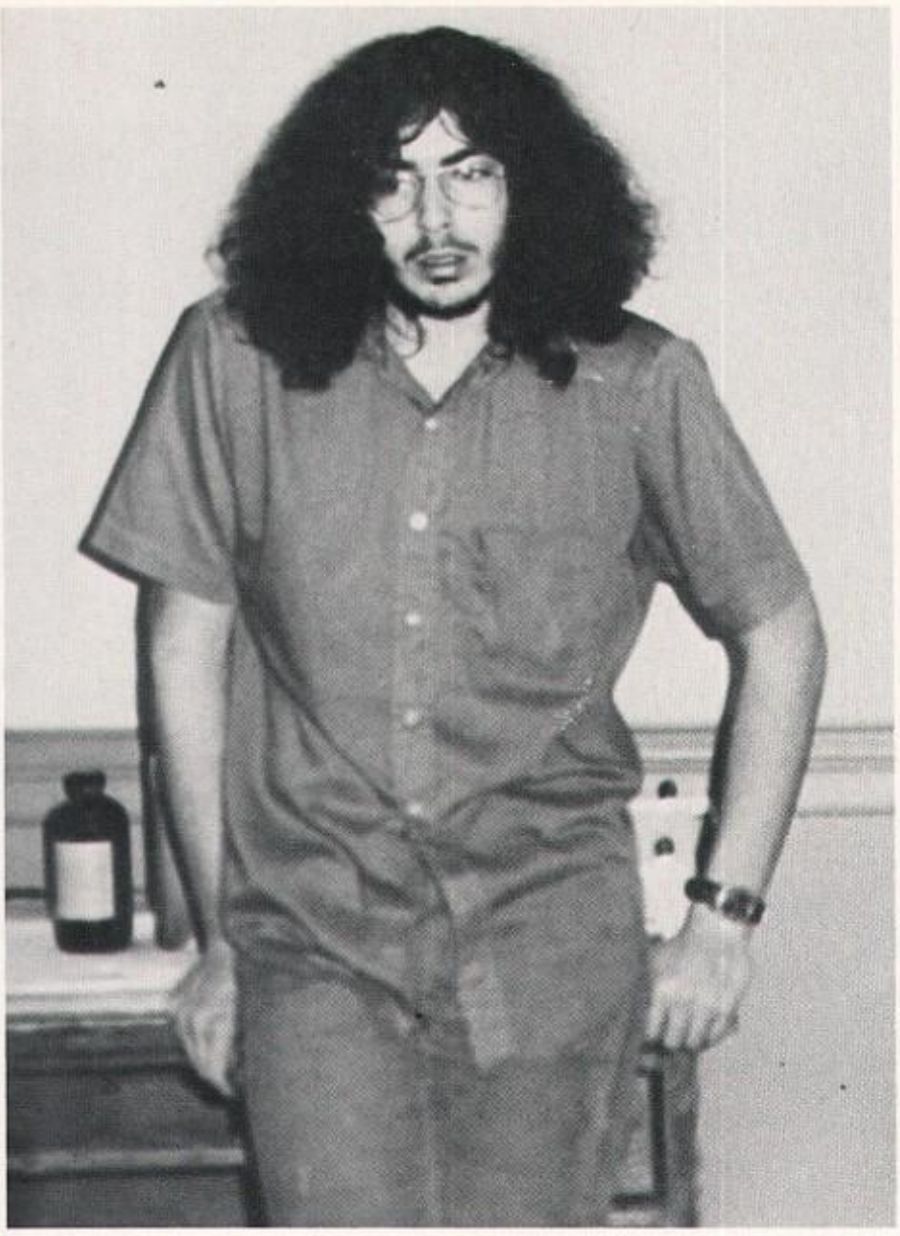
The APOCALYPSE Editors and staff hope that they have accomplished their goal: to set a sound foundation for future publications.

Marguerite Lawler and Jay Hibbard look over an edition.

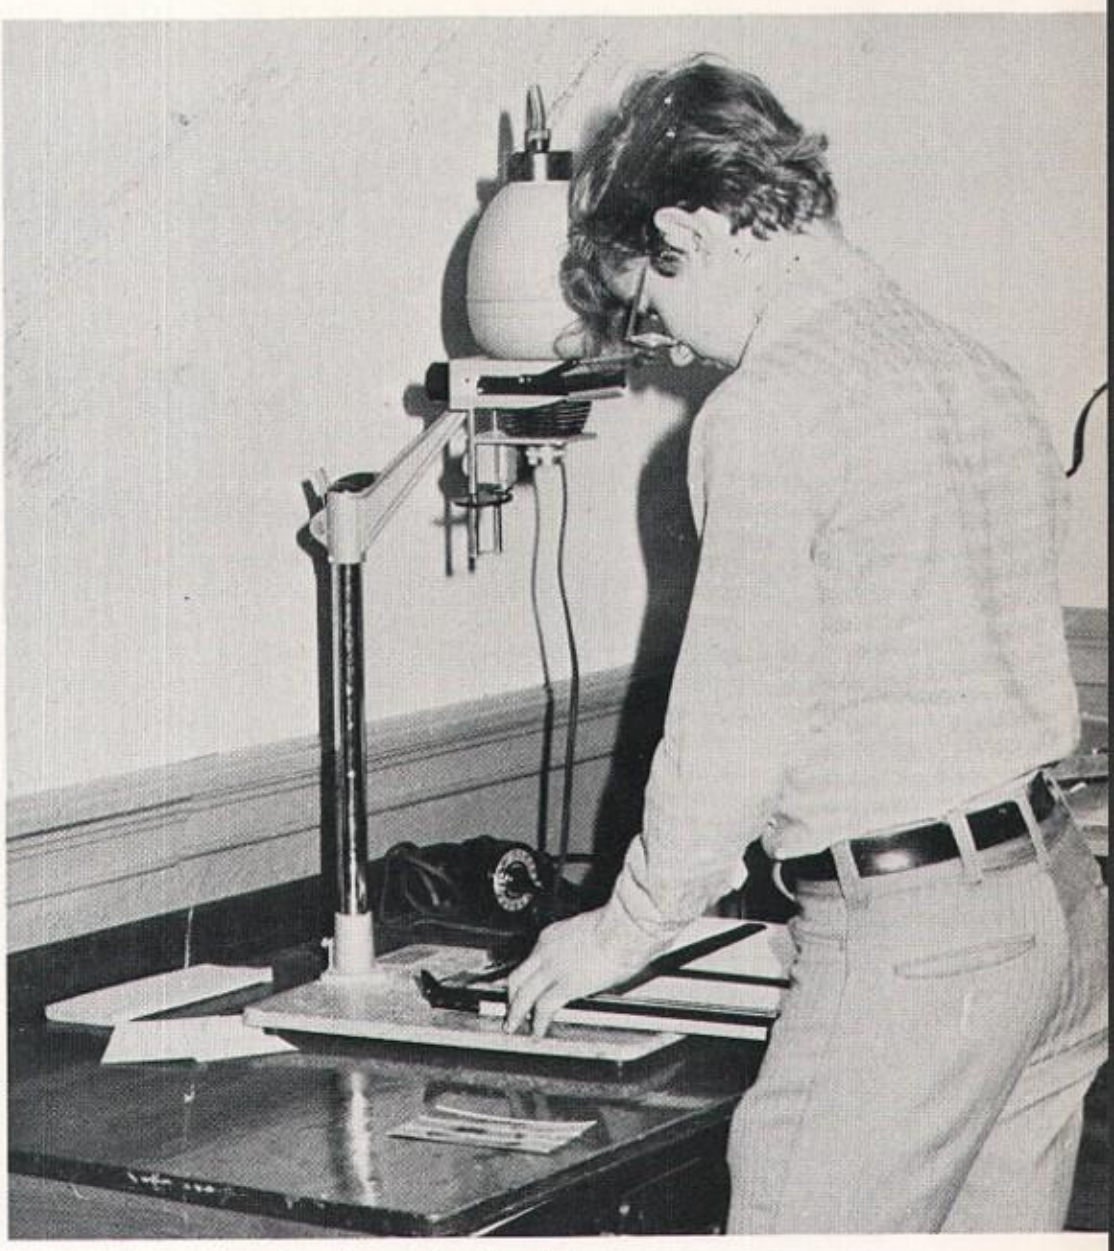


Debbie Therrien interviews David King for a story.





John Zeitman ran the darkroom with an iron hand.



Mike Anderson uses the enlarger for his prints.

Photography Club

At last Portland High School is equipped with a darkroom. Although in its second year of existence, the PHS Photography Club did not really get under way until this year. Guided efficiently by the photography abilities of John Zeitman, a great number of students became aware of the interesting field of photography.

Students were taught the basic photography skills which include developing film, printing, and developing photographs. In addition, some unusual photography effects were tried.

It was a good beginning for the Photography Club and it will undoubtedly attract more students next year.

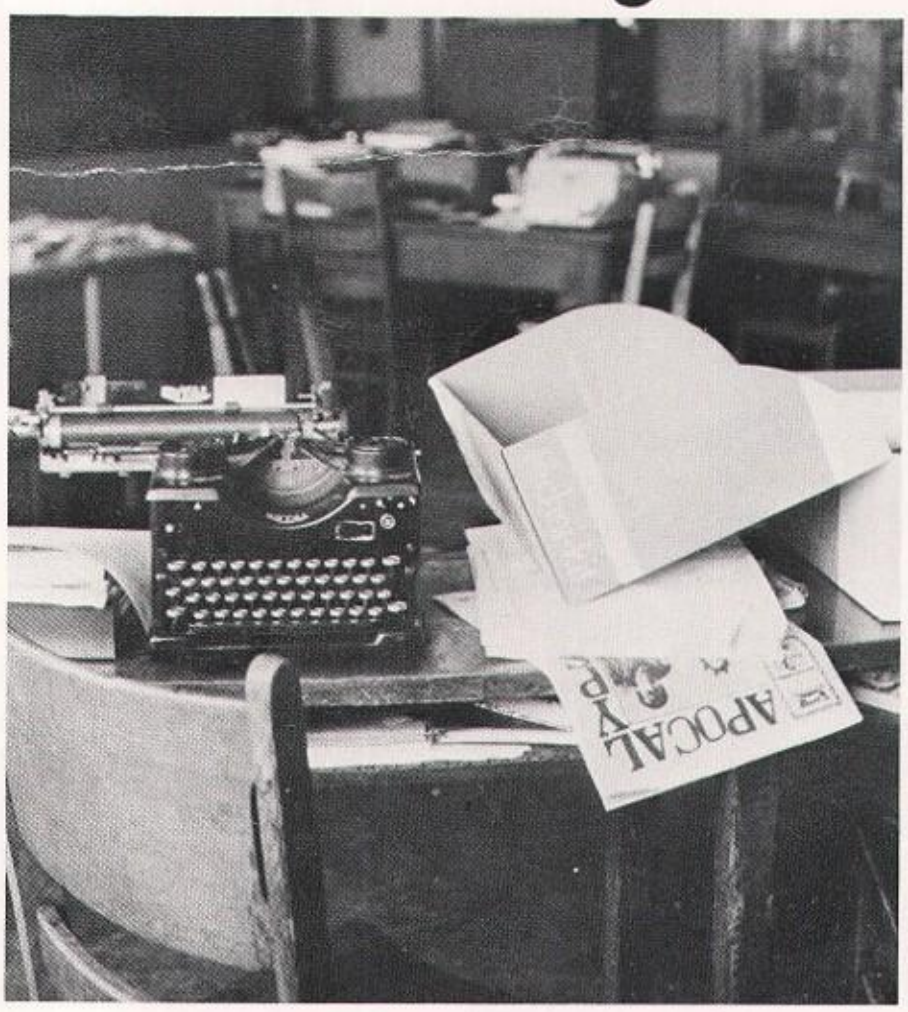
By-Liners' Club



The By-Liners' Club is an honorary press club for those juniors and seniors who have contributed to the field of journalism. This year, requirements for acceptance included hard work on the TOTEM or the APOCALYPSE.

Membership in the club is limited to twenty-five and is not continuous from year to year. The club's membership changes each year.

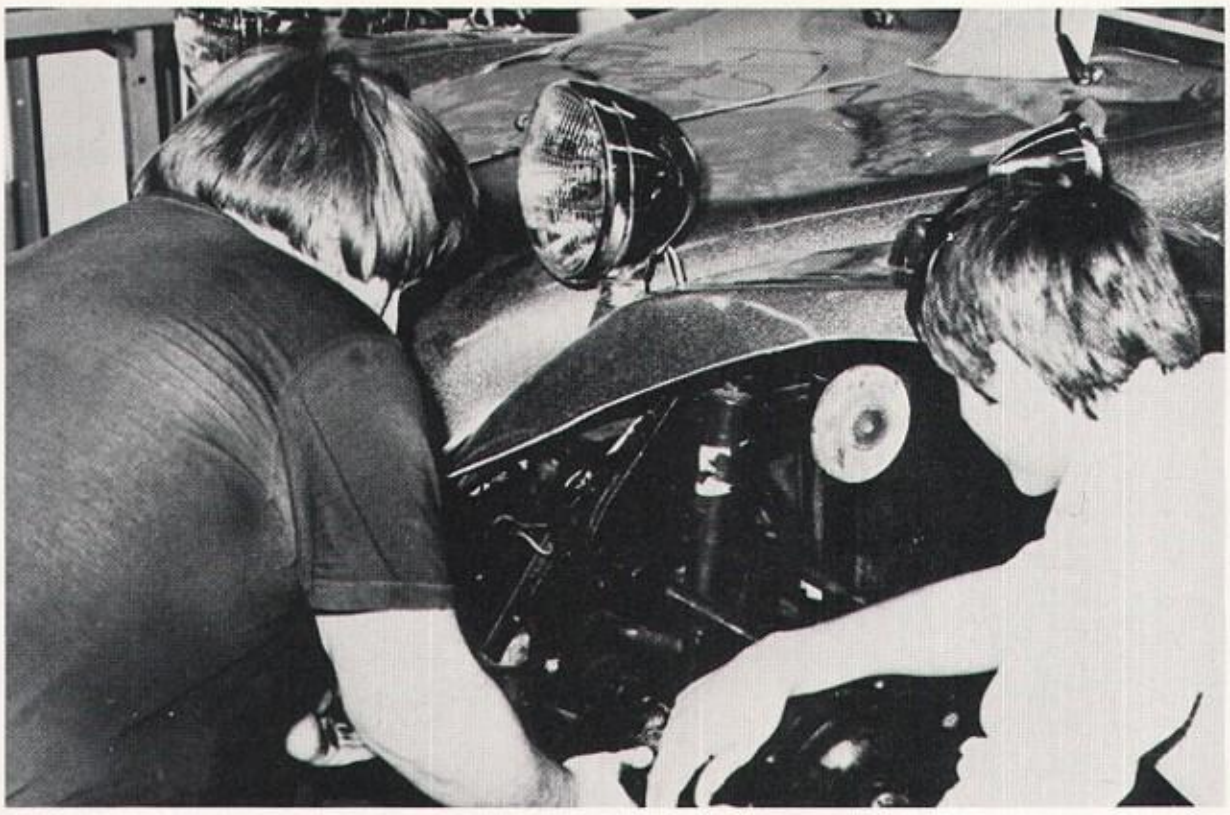
WE WANT A VICTORY!!!

Future career girls.

Good times at the zoo.

No I'm sorry, but all the MAD magazines have been taken out by Mr. Wallace.



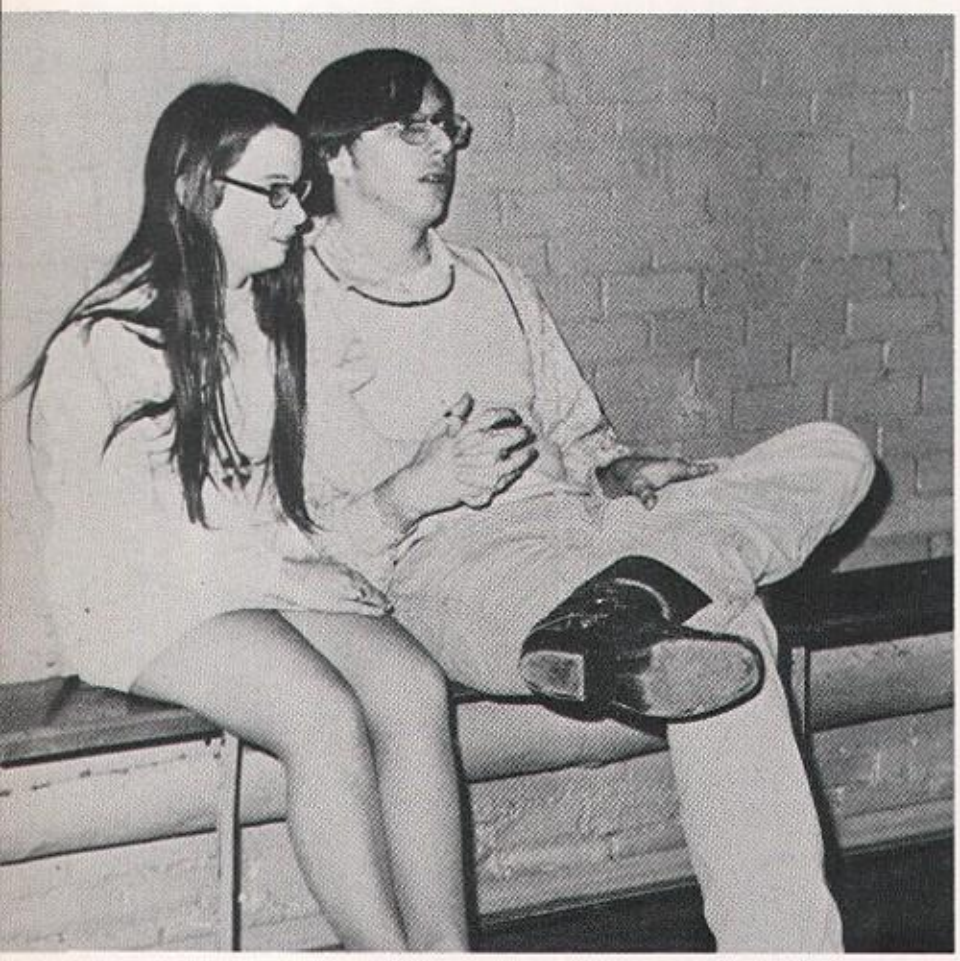
It looks like a worn brake shoe to me.

From one "artist" to another.

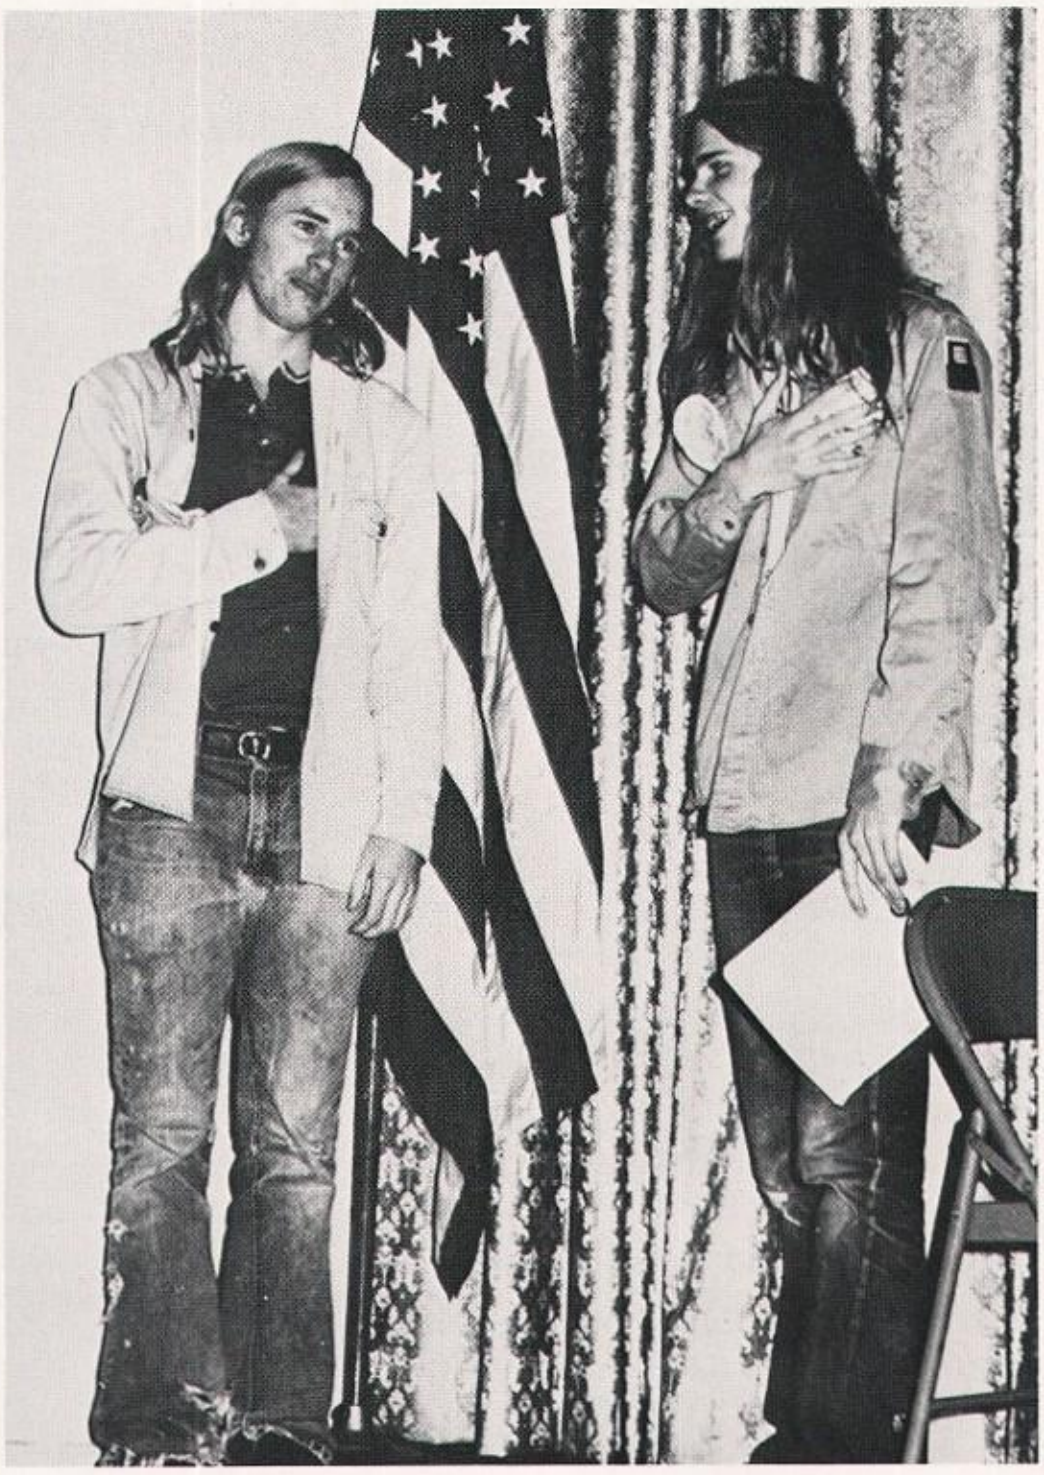
Brian, who's the pretty face you're trying to hide?

Eileen Paquette — PHS Girls' Table Tennis Champ.

Merry Merrie?

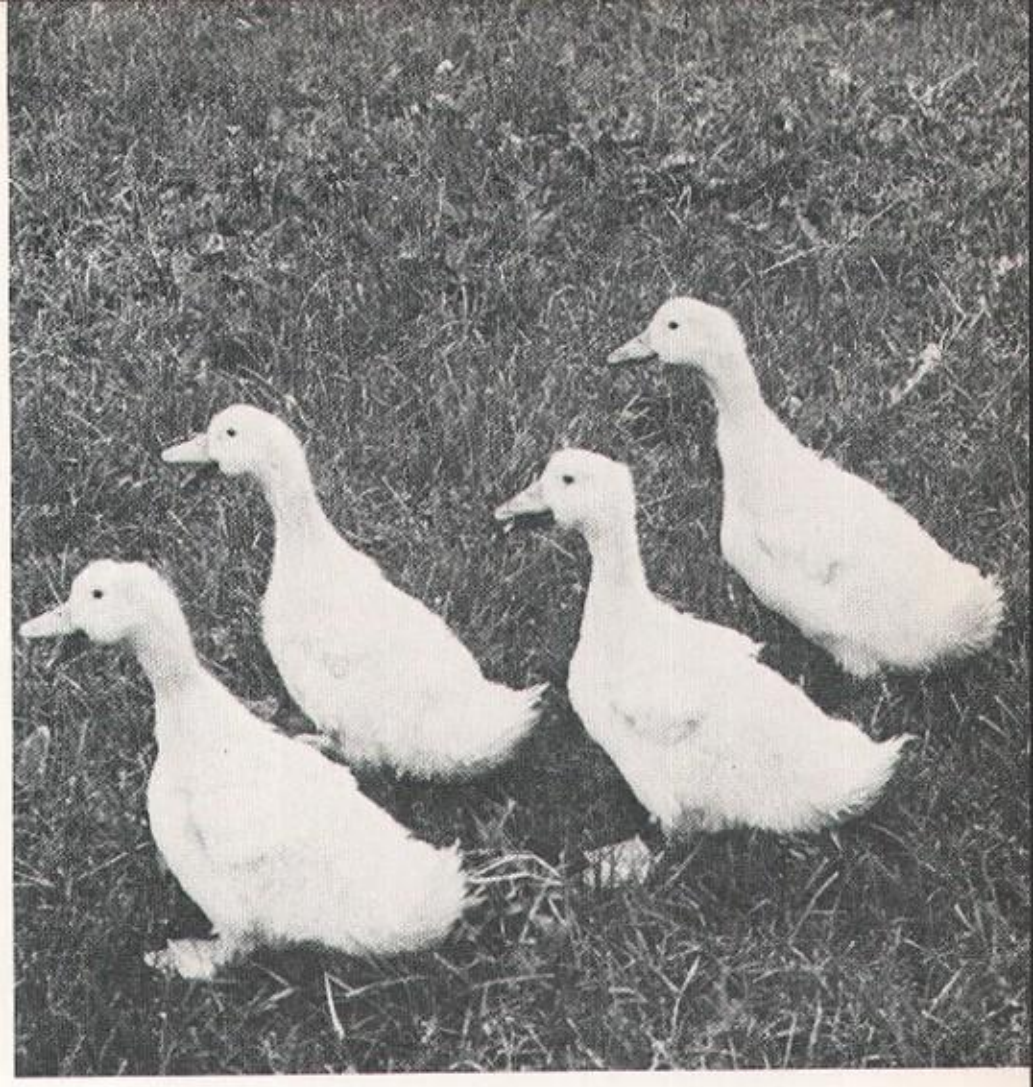


Oh, to be in love!

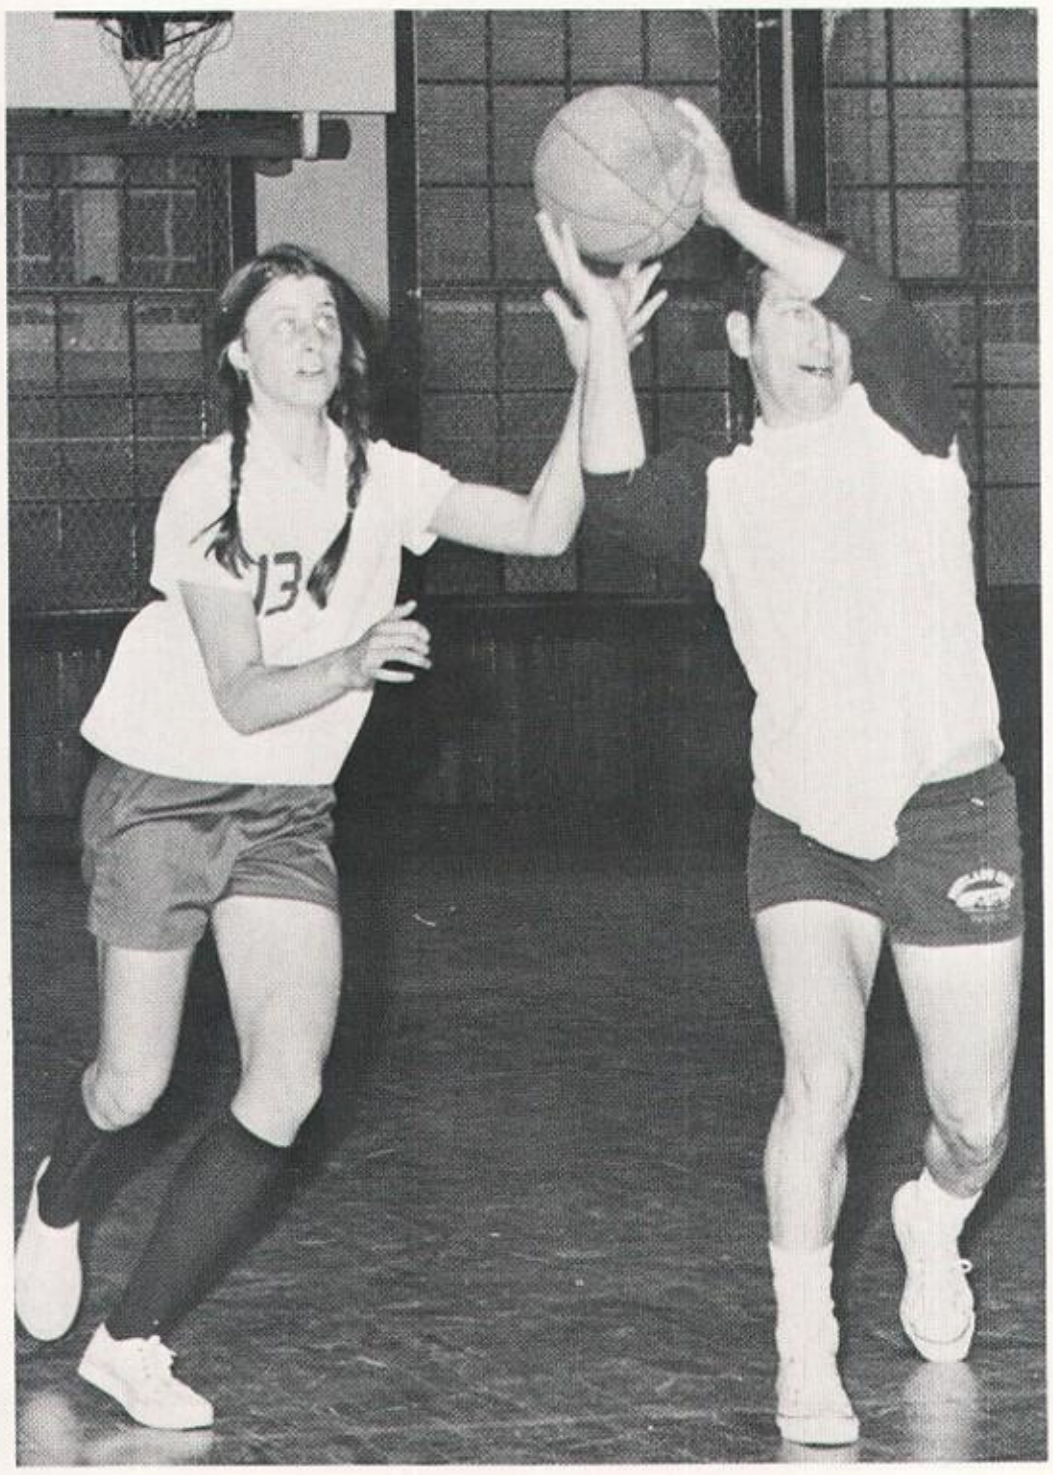


Under every exterior is a patriotic soul.

What goes on behind closed doors?

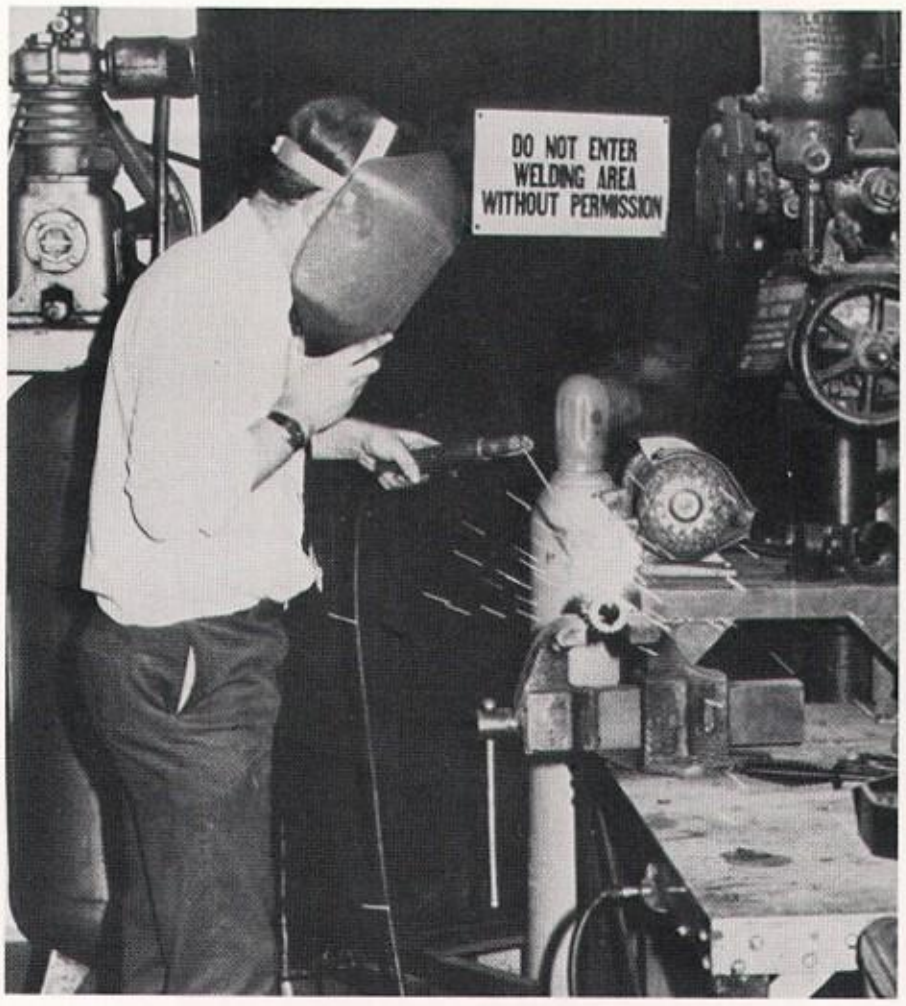


Faculty meeting coming up?



Mr. Whitmore thinks he's on the ball.

One of the "Future Carpenters of America."

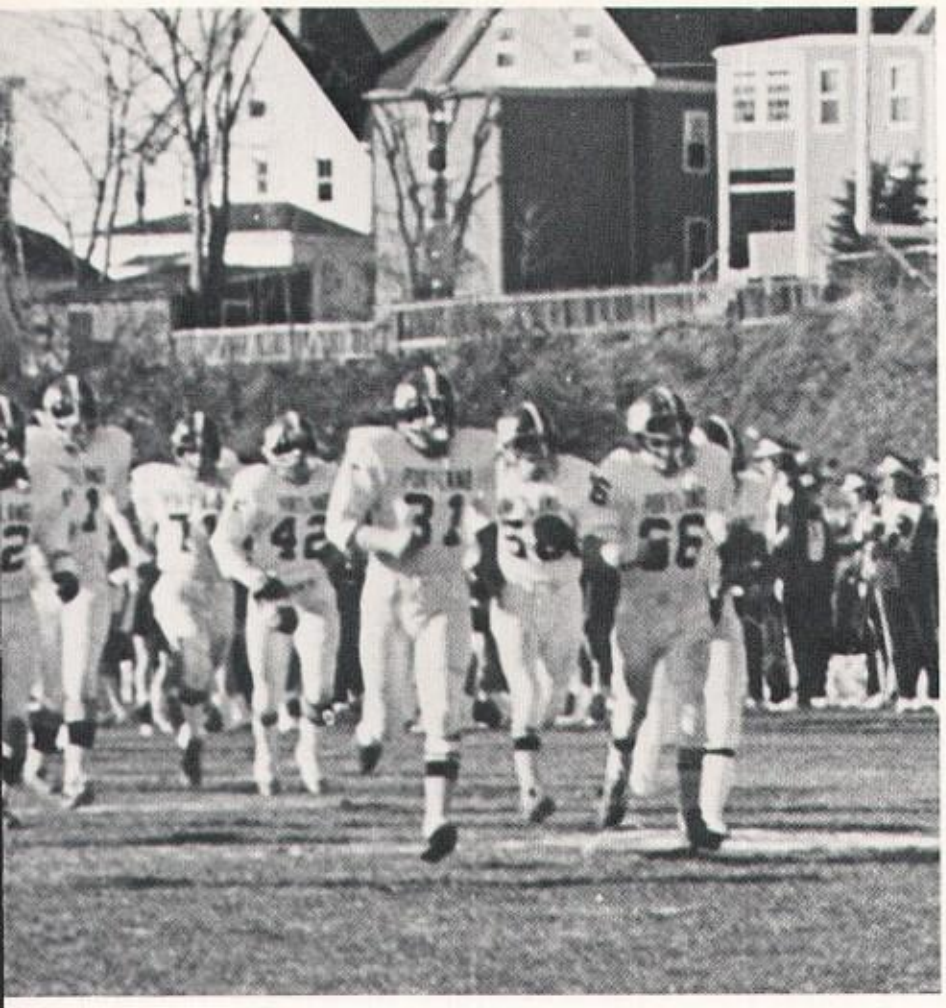


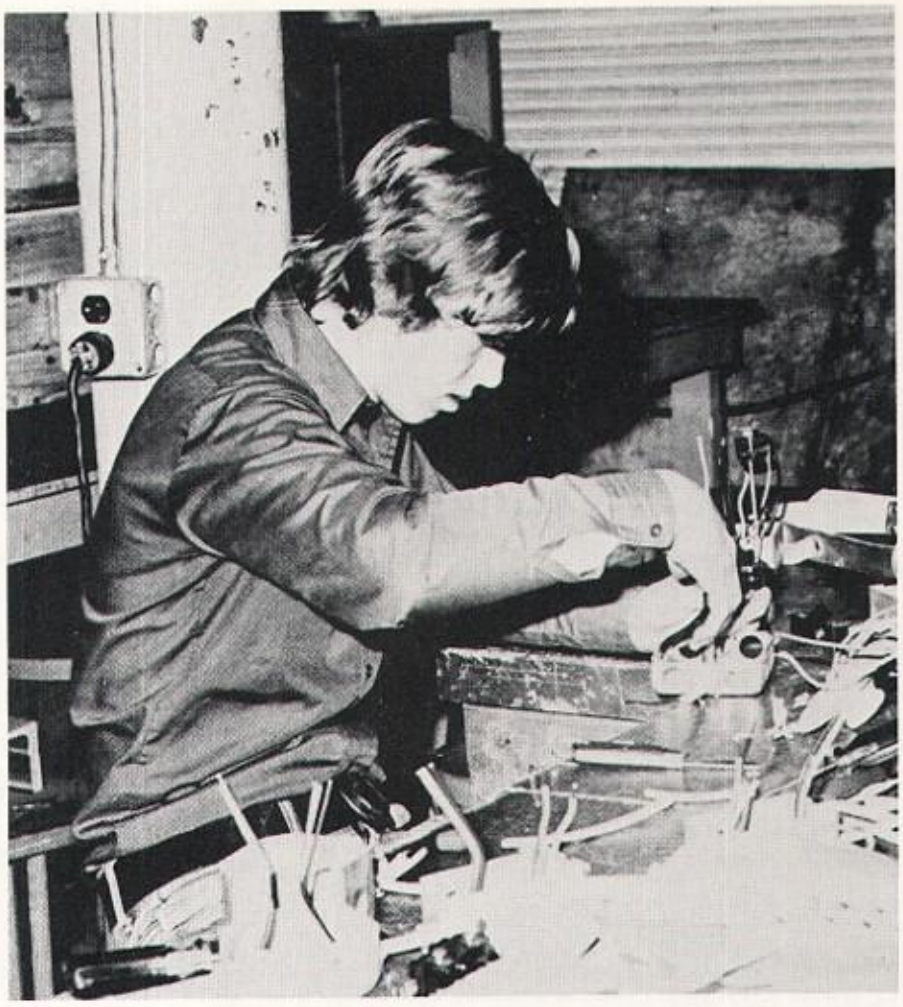
Who is the mystery man behind the iron mask?

Here come the Animals!

Oh my God! This is the paddy wagon.

You know, I really like this new green nail polish.





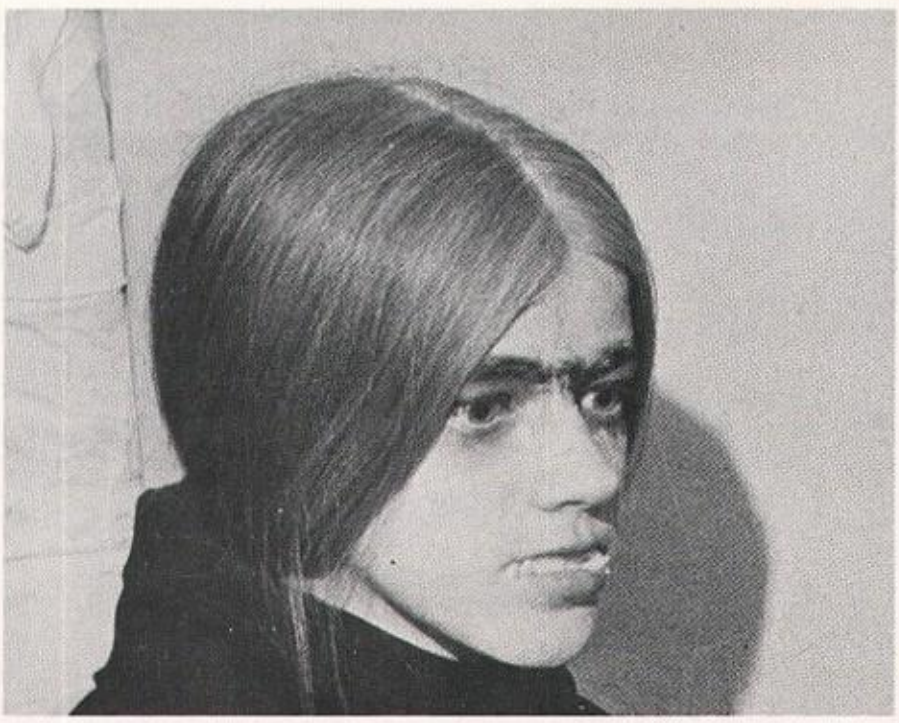
Help! My finger is stuck.

Oh, let it burn!

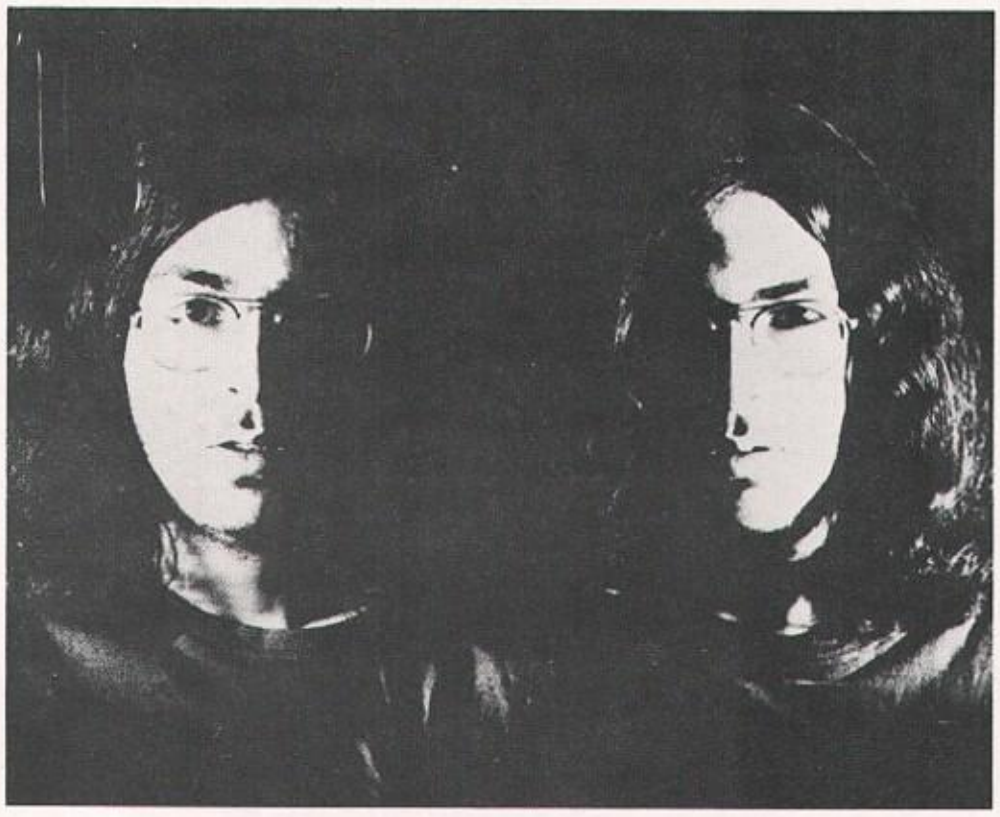
What's a friend for if not to help you when you have a bloody nose?

Like ##% I'm going to hit the ball with my head!

Bomb scare — '72



Who let her out of her cage?



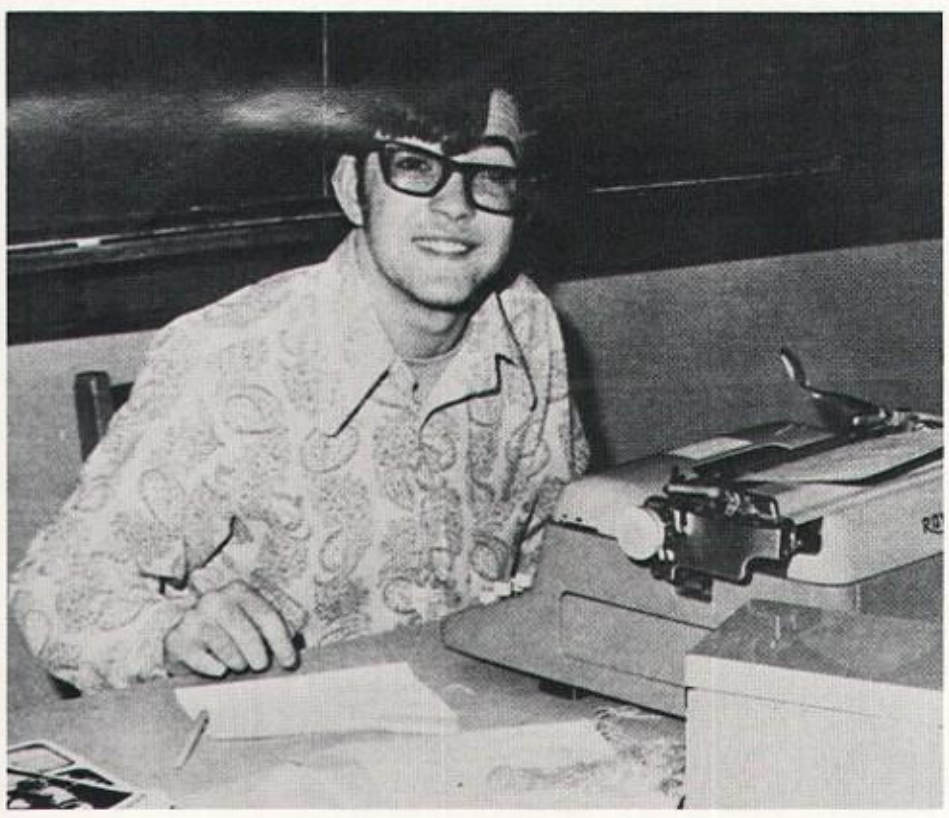
Will the real John Zeitman please stand up?

The Light Side Of PHS 1972 — 1973

At left, Only formal attire is allowed at PHS.

Ho! Ho! Ho!

Child Brutality!



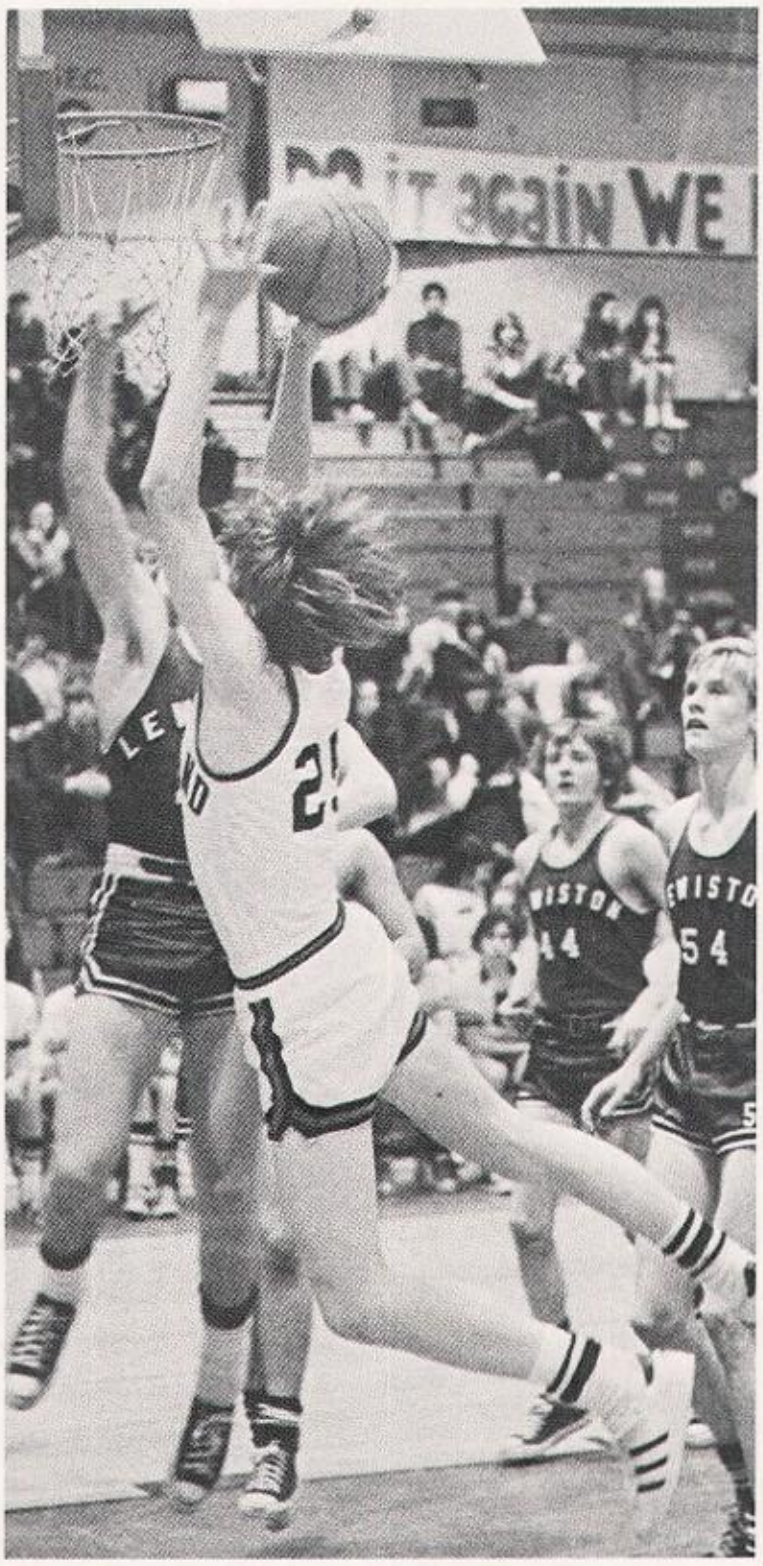
Say Cheese!

Mother never told me about Ultra-Brite.

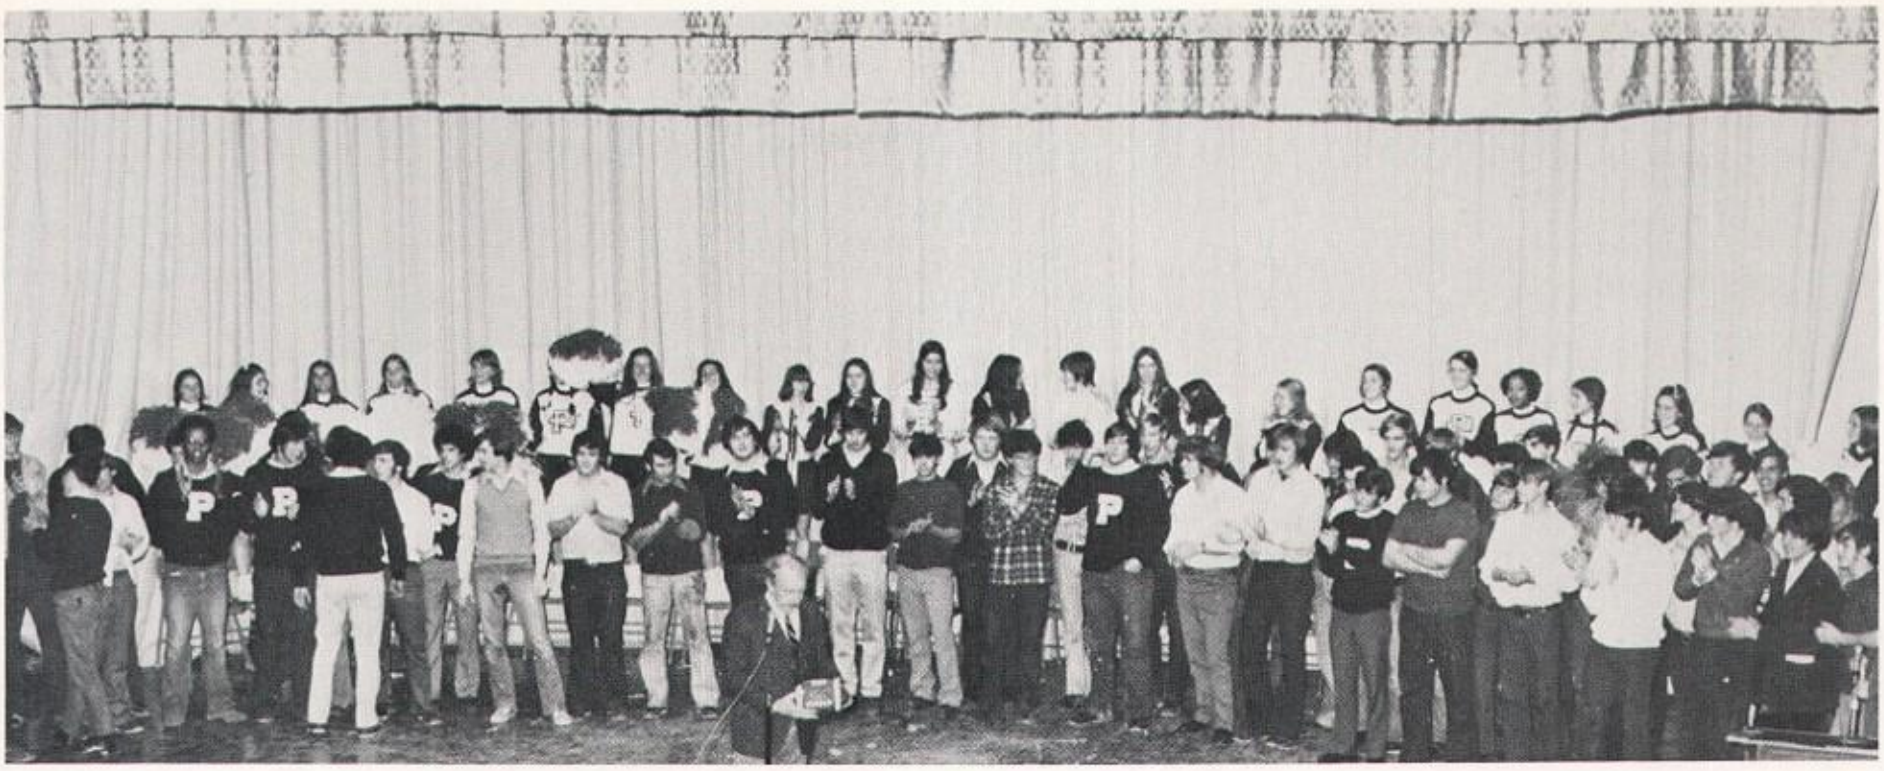
Hikers stop for lunch at the top of Mt. Eisenhower.

Peggy Profenno and Jill Paradise entertain Sheila Walsh, Teen Age Express'd Reporter from Falmouth.

Soccer players wait anxiously for a chance to show their stuff on the field.



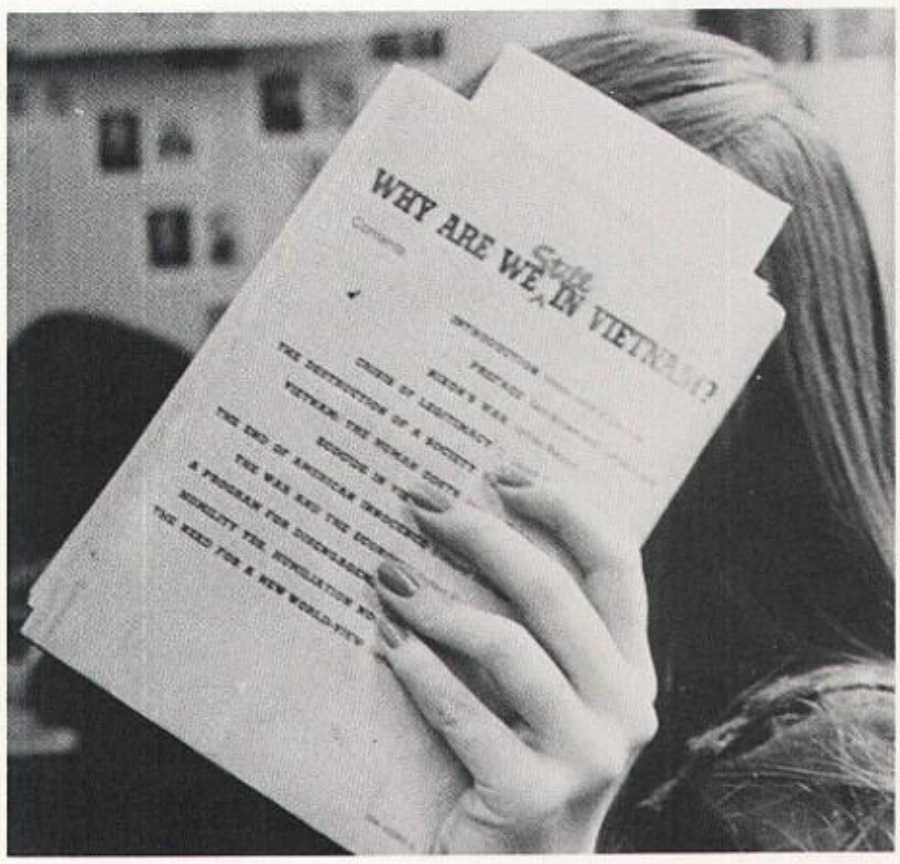
As the crowd cries, "Redmond, sink it in . . . "



The Big Line-Up — 1973

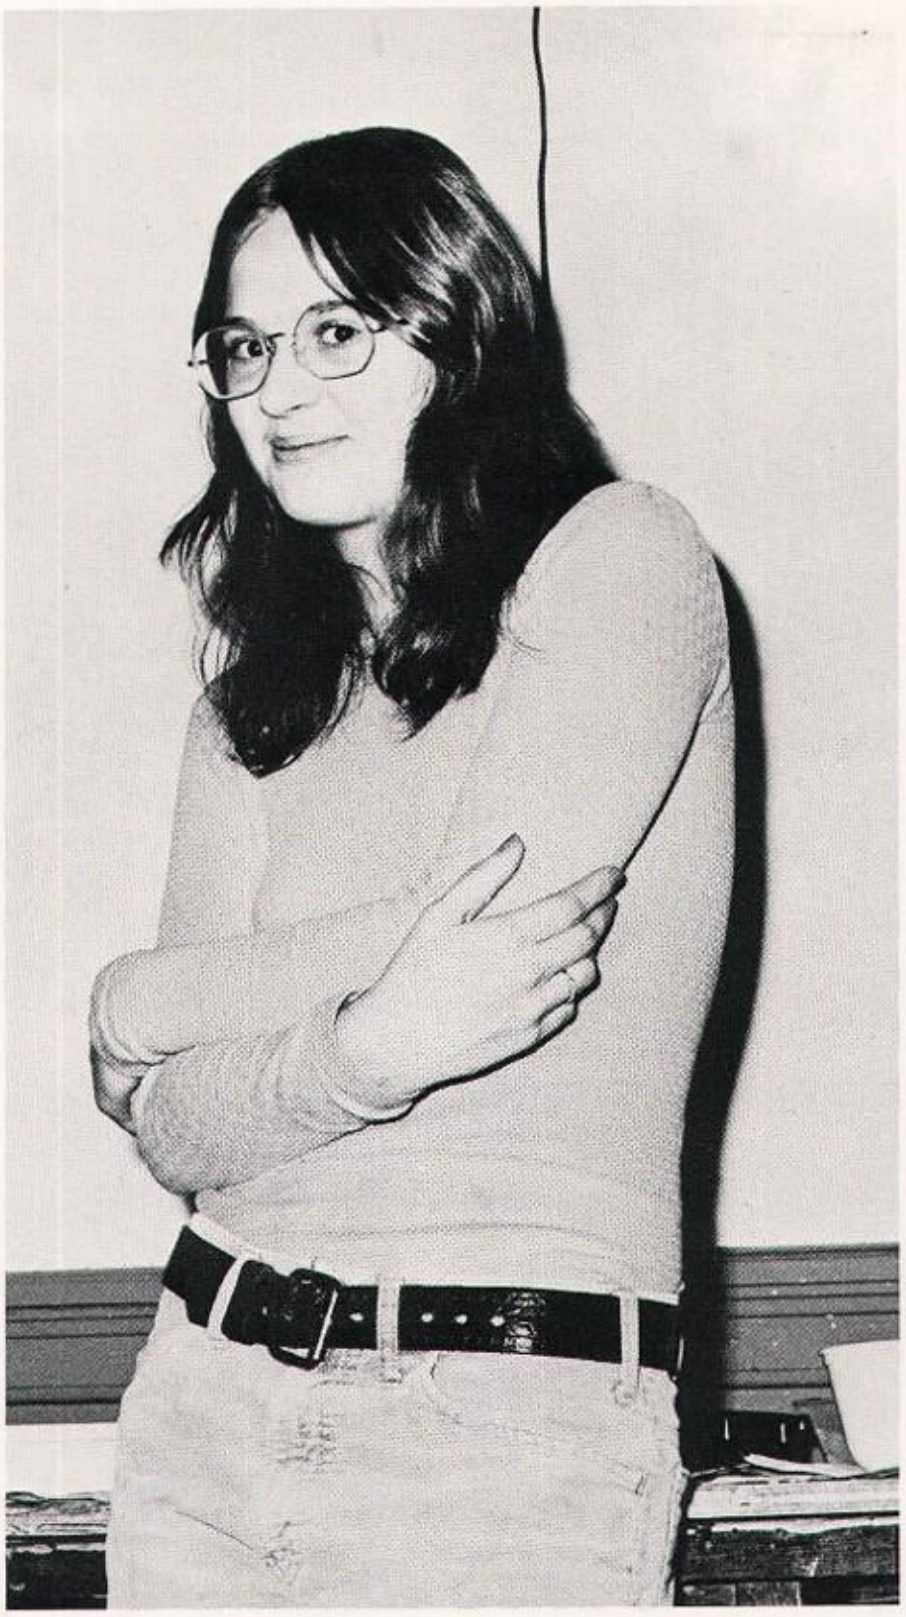
Have you got school spirit?

Russia's competition in the 1976 Olympics.

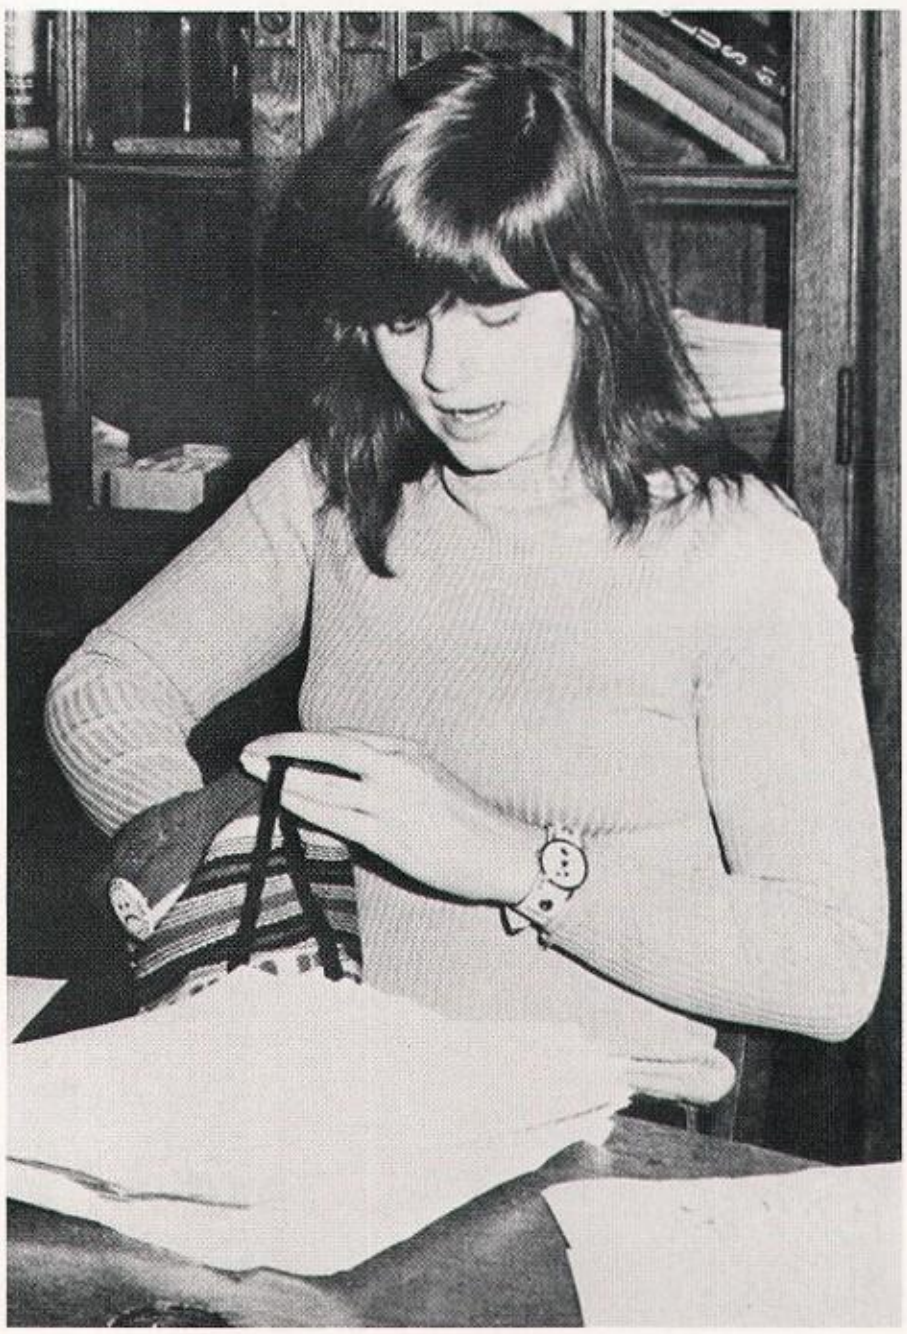


Good question!

"Hi, everybody! I'm Steve Hanson! Who are you?"



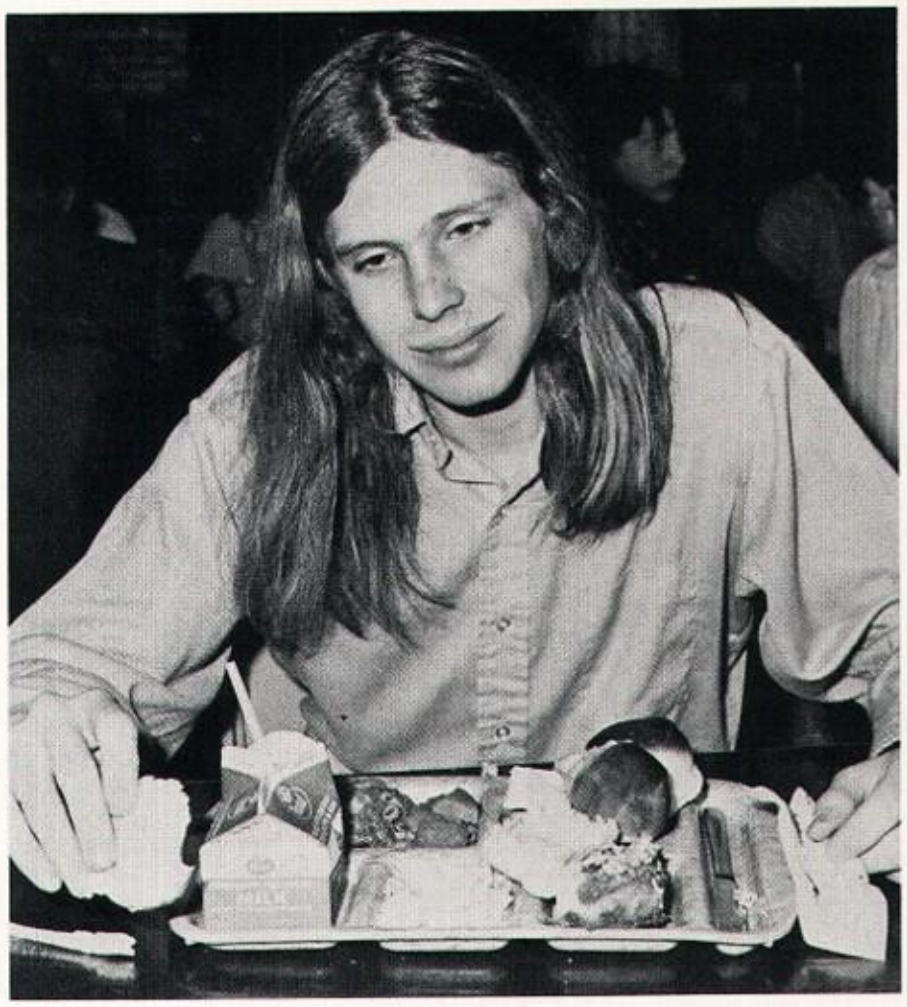
"What are you doing Friday night? I'm not busy."



"Let me see now. What goodies are in my purse?"

"If only I'd enrolled in Mrs. Schmidt's typing class."

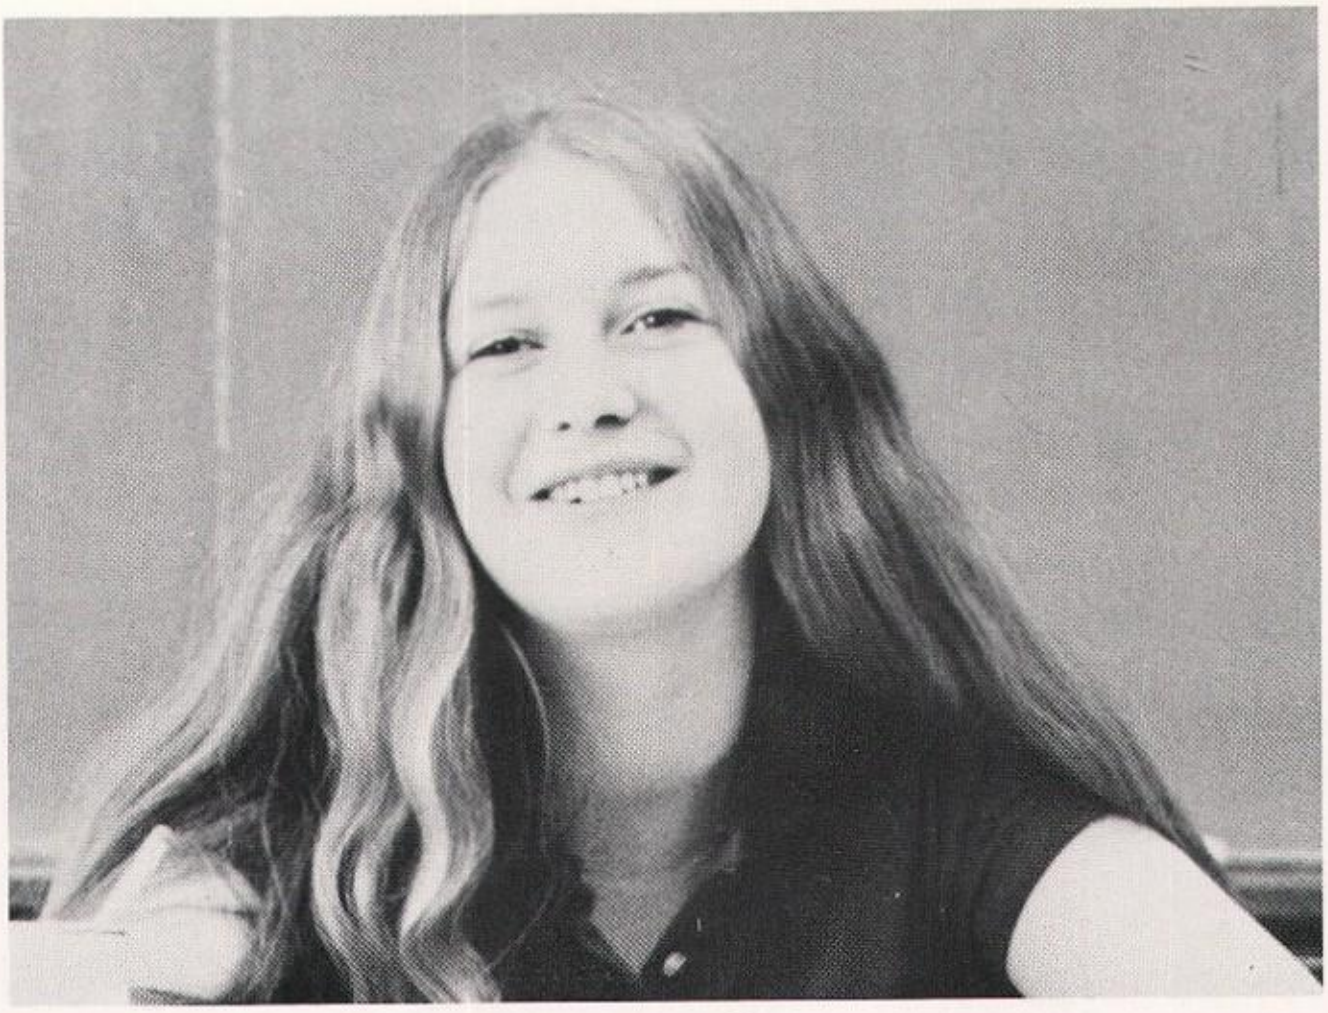
"This ammonium chlorate is delicious."



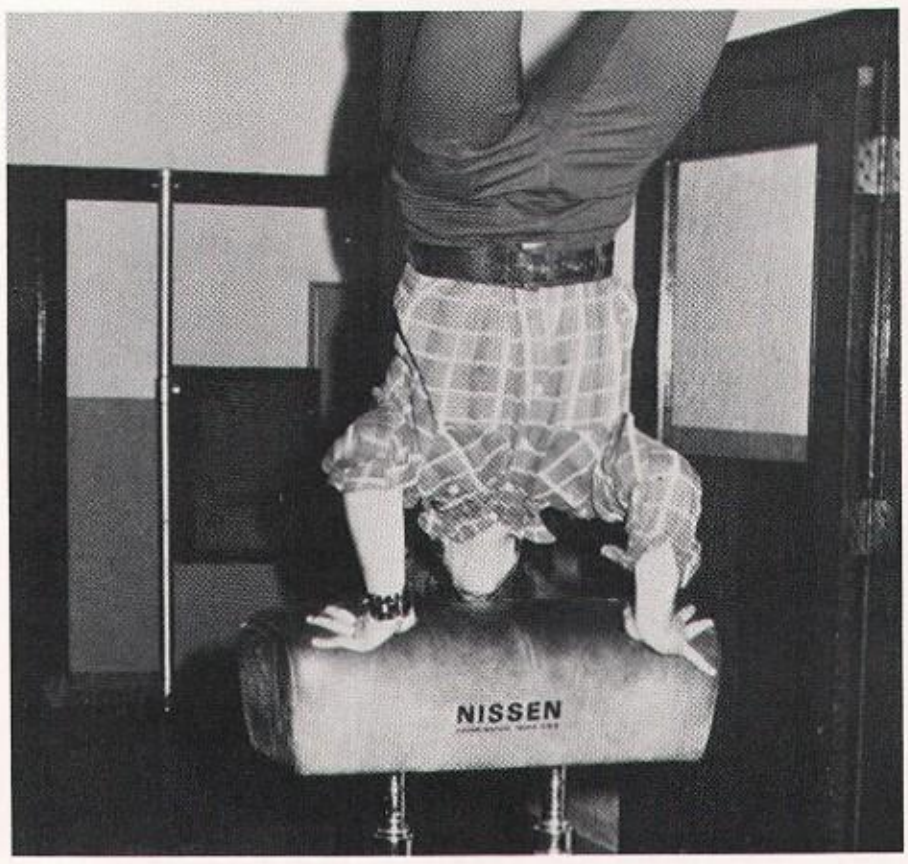
That same old feeling.

"Is this the alternate to the demerit system?"

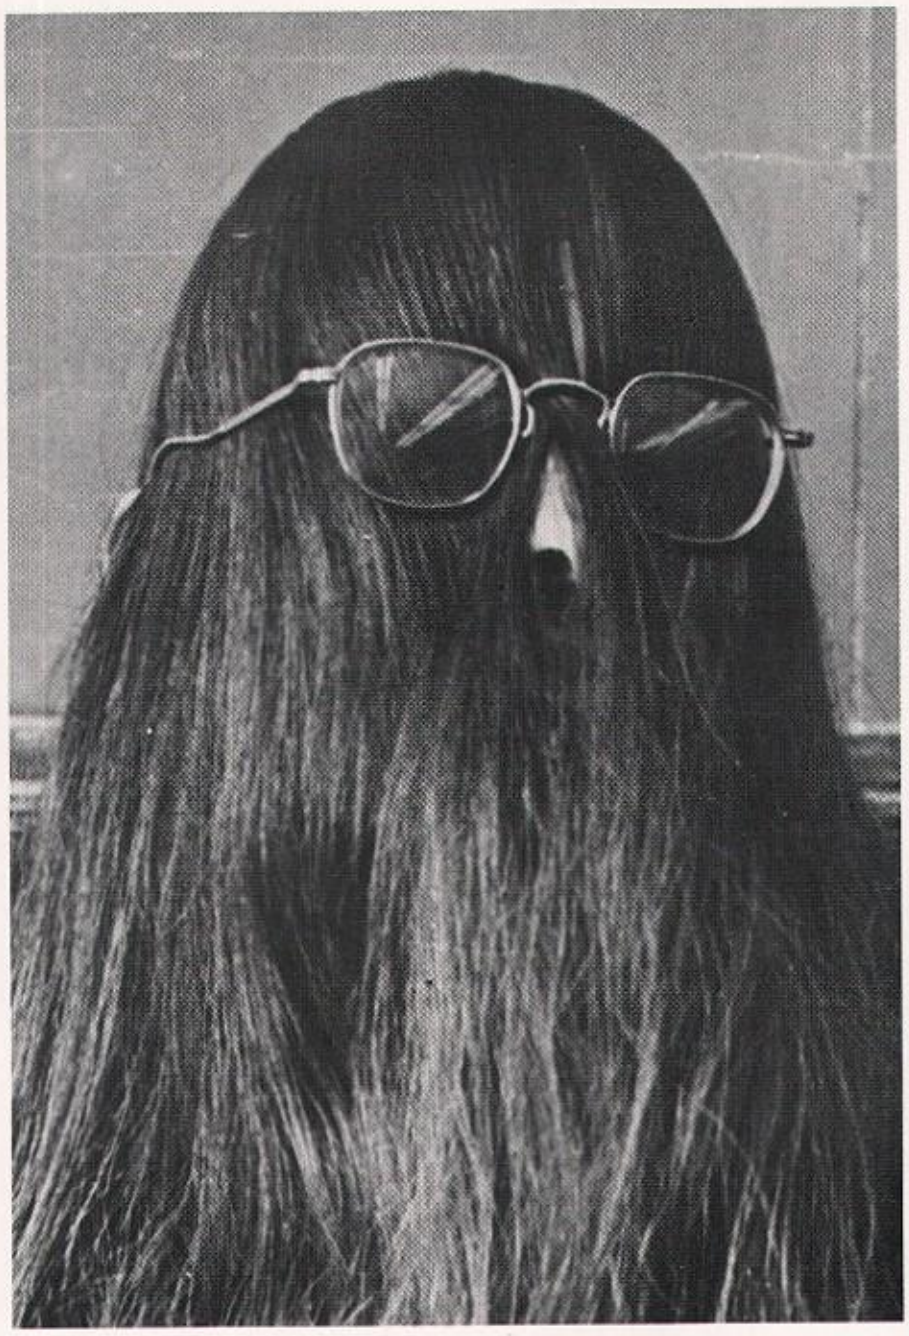
"Come back later. You caught me at a bad time."



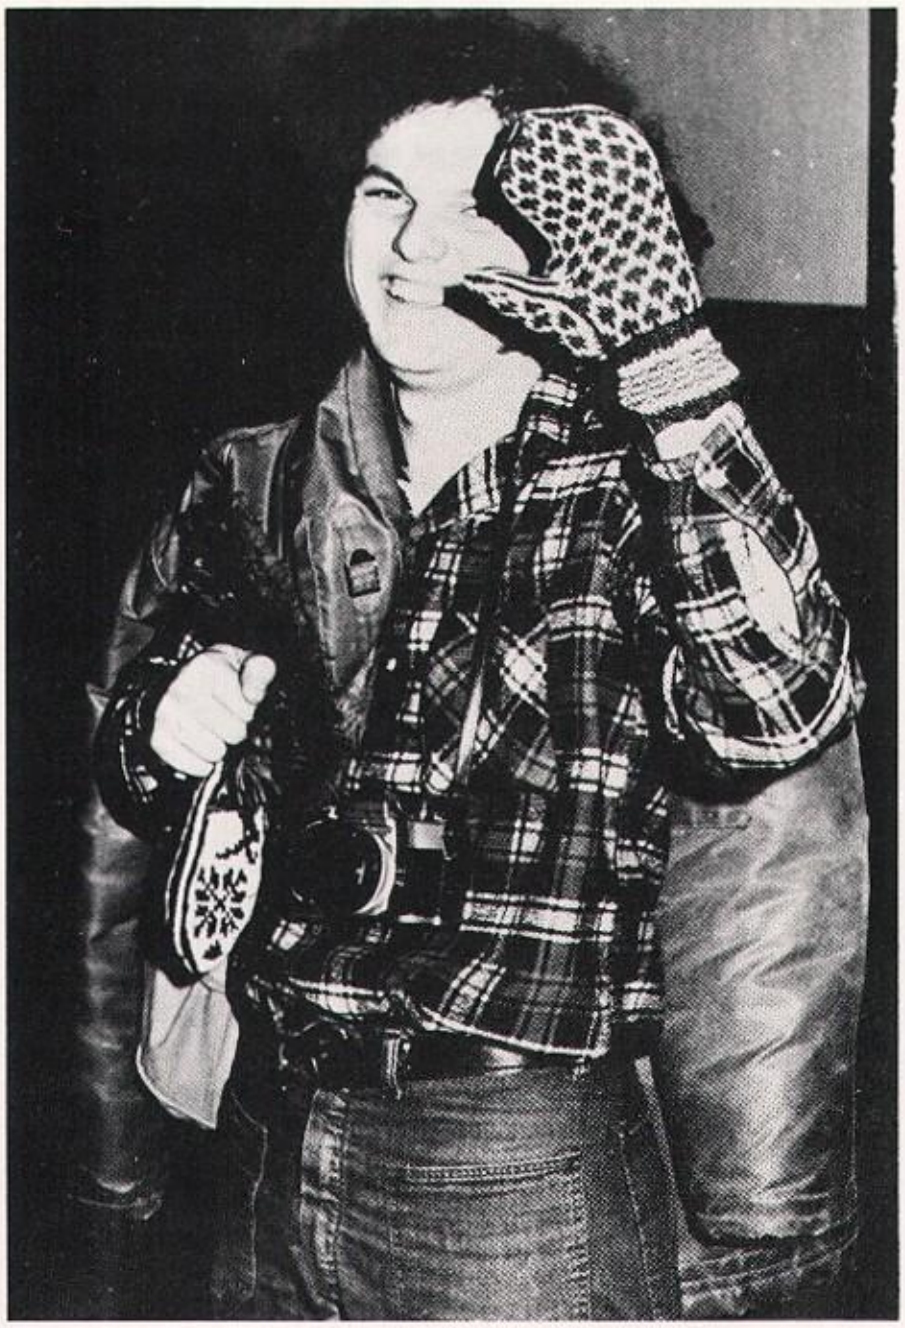
"Oh, Mr. Gribbin, you're dreamy! (Now can I have an A?)"



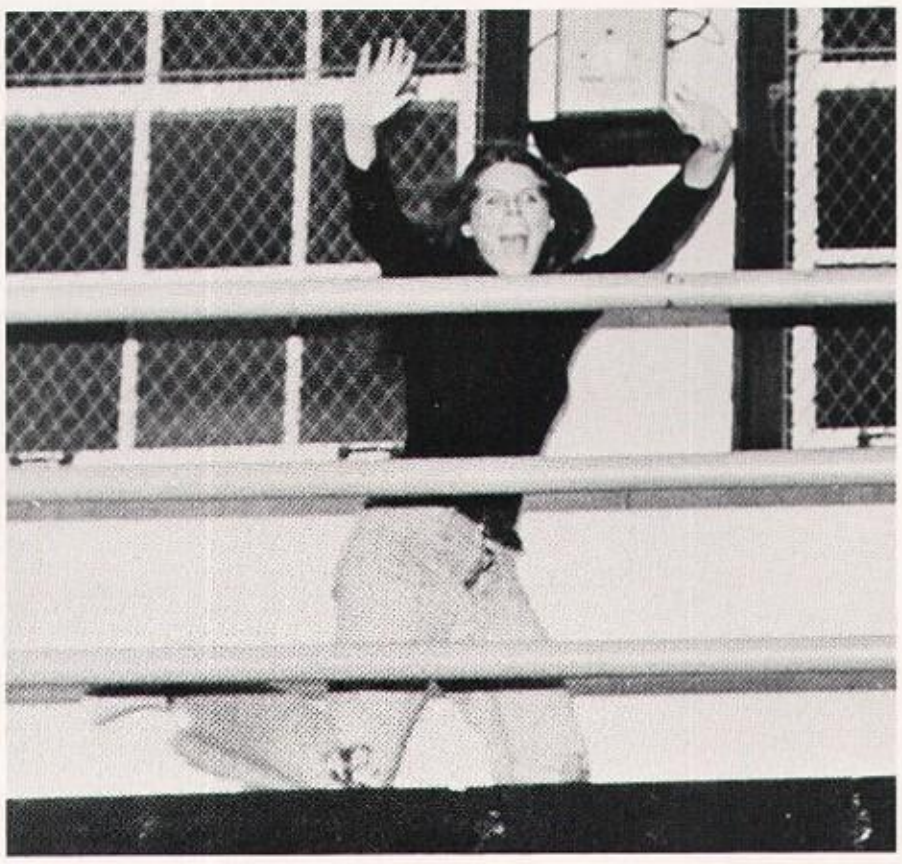
"Well, do I qualify for the Girls' Gymnastic Team?



"The Hairy Ape Story," a new motion picture starring Debbie Lerman.



"It's hard to pick my teeth with my mitten on!"



"Catch me if you can!"

"Why is it I suddenly wish I were two inches tall?"

There is opportunity for you in Maine...for higher education or for jobs in Maine's growing and diversified field of industry and business.

Central Maine Power

Make Maine your business

You're about to take a giant step forward into your future. We think we can make it the bright one you want it to be at New England Telephone. With a job that's every bit as big as your ambition. You see, we need people. With all kinds of talents. And especially, people who really want to get going with their future. And want to be rewarded with automatic raises. If you want a job and a future that's tailored to your talent... along with unusually generous fringe benefits, stop in and see your guidance counselor. Ask when and where you can apply for an interview with the people who want to make your future as happy as you want it to be.

"Wearers of the Blue we are proud of you!"

The bird of time has but a short flight to make,
And the bird is on the wing.

—Omar Khayyam
